Report of the Secretaries of State.

MADAM,

THE civilization of Africa has been, during these latter times, the favourite idea of philanthropists and an object of assiduous attention to the principal Governments, who, both in the old and the new world, lead the advancement and promote the amelioration of the human race, while Portugal, who had laboured for centuries in this great work, now, instead of promoting it, throws obstacles in its way.

The first title which our great Kings, your Majesty's ancestors, added to that of King of Portugal, was that of Lords of Guinea and of the countries beyond the seas, in Africa ; borne by the hands of our navigators, directed by the daring science of our astronomers, the Portuguese flag waved successively over the seas of Centa, the fertile regions bathed by the Senegal and Gambia, and the eastern coast of Africa, where we founded factories, built fortresses, and conquered nations.

In our deeds of arms in Africa, modern historians have calumniously represented us as trafficking, sword in hand, with the lives and possessions of the nations we discovered ; but there is not one document extant which does not prove that the principal and almost only aim of the Portuguese Government was their civilization by means of the Gospel : trade was but a secondary object, although likewise a means of civilization, and dominion was a necessary consequence and not an object.

The errors of religious doctrine and the defects of political measures were imputable to the age, not to the men.

India, in the first instance, and the Brazils next, made us abandon Africa, the most natural field for our labours ; but the colonization of the Brazils and the exploration of its mines, and, soon afterwards, the interest which all other nations took in America, were the greatest enemies to the civilization of Africa, which we alone had begun at so great a sacrifice of our lives and property.

The infamous slave traffic is certainly an indelible stain upon the history of modern nations, but we were neither the only, the principal, nor the most guilty. Those of our accomplices, who afterwards reproached us so severely, were deeper in guilt than ourselves.

To repair, therefore, the evil done, to prevent its repetition, are duties binding upon the honour of the Portuguese nation, and conducive to the interests of your Majesty's Crown ; for the dominions which we yet possess in that part of the world, are as yet the most extensive, the most important, and the most valuable possessed by any European nation in Southern Africa.

In

In order to appreciate their value, we are to consider not only what they are, but what they are susceptible of. Their present state is owing not only to the mis rule of the mother country, but to the latter's having given her almost exclusive attention to the Brazils.

The natives of Africa were captured and conveyed across the Atlantic, to enrich a country whose inhabitants refused to exert themselves for its civilization.

We read in an ancient record that there were formerly seventeen sugar mills on the Island of Saint Thomas, which the Government of Portugal caused to be destroyed, in order not to injure the cultivation of the sugar cane, which they were then promoting in the Brazils.

Our African provinces contain rich mines of gold, copper, iron, and precious stones. We can there cultivate all that is cultivated in America. We possess lands of the greatest fertility in the Cape de Verd Islands, in Guinea, Angola, and Moçambique : great and navigable rivers fertilize some of our provinces, and facilitate their commerce. In those vast regions we can cultivate, largely, the sugar-cane, rice, indigo, coffee, cotton, and cocoa, in short, all those articles commonly called colonial, as well as all the spice plants of the Moluccas and Ceylon, in such abundance as not only to suffice for the consumption of Portugal, but for exportation in very large quantities to the other markets of Europe, and at a less price than those of America ; since the African cultivator would not be obliged to seek for and purchase labourers, and then transport them across the Atlantic, while the high price paid by the Brazilian for the slaves he employs, is further increased by the risks attendant upon the contraband traffic by which he obtains them.

Let us promote, in Africa, the colonisation of Europeans, the developement of its industry, the employment of its capital, and in a few years we shall again derive the same benefits that we formerly did. But for this purpose, a thorough reform of our colonial laws is necessary.

If any system of legislation can be judged of by its results, none can be worse than that by which our colonies have been ruled. Centuries have passed away since first they came under our dominion, and they are but little more civilized than they were when we conquered them; while, as a contrast, the neighbouring colony of the Cape of Good Hope has, within much less time, increased rapidly in white population, and in wealth.

The glory of continuing the great undertaking commenced by King John the Second, was reserved for your Majesty. The civilization of Africa, of which so many powerful nations have despaired, is more feasible to the Queen of Portugal, who holds in her hands the key of the principal gates at which it can enter, and whose authority is obeyed in various parts of that vast continent, at distances of more than two hundred leagues from the sea; and as it was possible for the former Sovereigns of Portugal to open roads for civilization, a step which no other Prince had ventured upon, so it will be possible to make that beneficial plant thrive and flourish in those regions.

As an indispensable preliminary to any measures which for this great purpose your Majesty, in accordance with the General Cortes, may take, your Secretaries of State have the honour to propose the following project of a Decree for the entire and complete abolition of the slave-trade in your dominions.

Foreign-Office, 10th December 1836.

(Signed by all the Ministers.)

DECREE.

Taking into consideration the reports of the Secretaries of State of the different departments, I hereby issue the following Decree :

Art. 1. That the exportation of slaves be henceforth prohibited, both by sea and land, in the Portuguese dominions, as well to the north as to the south of the equator, from the day on which the present Decree shall be published in the different capitals of the said dominions.

Art 2. The importation of slaves by sea is also strictly prohibited under any pretext whatever.

S. 1. Due notification must be given of any slaves that may be brought by land into any of the Portuguese territories.

Art. 3. Any planter, whether native or foreigner, who, from any part of the Portuguese dominions in Africa, may establish himself in any other part of the said dominions, on the continent or islands on the coast of Africa, is exempted from the rules laid down in the first and second article relating to the exportation and importation of slaves.

S. 1. The same exemption from the rule established, in Article second, also extends to the importation of slaves by sea made by any planter, whether native or foreigner, who, from any port not subject to my power, may establish himself in any of my dominions in Africa.

Art. 4. The powers granted by the preceding article of this Decree shall be regulated as follows :

S. 1. The number of slaves exported or imported under the exceptions treated of in the said third Article, can never exceed ten.

S. 2. Previous to the exportation of slaves the owner of the same shall make a declaration, before the chief authorities of the Custom-house of the port of embarkation, of the number intended to be ship-shipped, giving substantial bond equal to double the value of the slaves to be shipped, and also that they shall be actually landed at the place of their declared destination.

S. 3. The object of the foregoing clause being complied with, the transaction shall be registered in a book, to be kept for that purpose at the Custom-house, with the addition of the declaration made by the owner of the slaves, and the conditions of the security given.

S. 4. The chief authority of the Custom-house, wherein the documents referred to in the foregoing clause shall be registered, shall transmit an authenticated copy of the same, under the official seal, to the chief authority of the Custom-house of the port, declared by the owner of the slaves to be their destination.

S. 5. The owner of the slaves may, by virtue of the certificate of their delivery, given by the chief authority of the Custom-house of the port of their declared destination, demand the cancelling of the bond given at the port of their shipment, and it shall be immediately granted.

S. 6. Should the owner of the slaves not appear personally with them, within six months from the date of the Act treated of in the third section, before the superior authority of the port of the declared destination, the latter shall make an official communication to the superior authority of the Custom-house where the transaction was registered, in order that proper measures may be taken to give effect to the bond.

S. 7. The bondsman shall be released from his bond on proof of shipwreck, or of the death of the person for whom he stood bound.

S. 8. On proof of the death of the whole or part of the slaves declared in the manifest, the bondsman shall also be released from the whole or corresponding amount of his bond.

Art. 5. For every slave exported, according to the mode prescribed in the beginning of the third article, the same duties shall be levied as were paid when the exportation of slaves was permitted.

S. 1. The same duties shall be paid for each slave imported in the cases allowed by the clause to the third article.

S. 2. The same duties shall be paid for each slave imported by land.

Art. 6. Passports shall not be given to merchant vessels for any part of Africa to the south of the twentieth degree of north latitude, unless the owner or master shall first have signed a bond not to receive on board any slaves but those, the exportation of whom is permitted by the 3d article of this decree.

Art. 7. Vessels, whether Portuguese or foreign, fitting out in the ports of this kingdom, and its adjacent islands, and in the other ports of the monarchy, to navigate to Africa, to the south of the twentieth degree of north latitude, shall be searched on the day of their departure by the civil authority of the port, accompanied by one of the chief functionaries of the Custom-house, or, in his absence, by some trusty officer, who on their own responsibility shall with the most scrupulous care search the vessel; and not finding any thing to excite suspicion, shall allow her to depart freely.

S. 1. If, however, any articles indicative of her destination to the slave trade be found, they shall be seized as contraband, and the owners, captains, mate, and shippers shall incur the penalties specified in the seventeenth article below.

S. 2. After the search nothing can be received on board the ship.

S. 3. In the event of the vessels not being condemned, but cause of suspicion still existing that she is intended for the slave trade, the competent authority may expect sufficient security that the par-

parties interested in her will not employ her in that trade.

S. 4. If within eighteen months there be no charge preferred against the party for whom bail is given, or if within that space of time he shall have been prosecuted and acquitted, the bond of security shall become cancelled.

Art. 8. The articles considered to indicate the design of employing the vessel in the slave trade are mentioned in the list annexed to this decree; and which constitutes part thereof. This list was signed this day by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, who presides over the Council of Ministers.

Art. 9. In the passports granted to merchant vessels for the before-mentioned African territories, a clause shall always be inserted, that if found contravening this decree by Portuguese ships of war, they may be seized by them.

Art. 10. On arrival at any of the ports of the said territories the master of each vessel shall be obliged, as soon as he casts anchor, to send the passport of his vessel to the chief authorities of the Custom-house, who shall retain it till the day of her departure.

S. 1. On the day of her sailing the said authority shall deliver the passport to an officer of the Custom-house, for whom he shall be responsible, and who having proceeded on board, and ascertained, upon strict search, that she has no slaves on board, such as are alluded to in the third article, nor any of the articles enumerated in the list annexed to this decree, shall deliver the passport to the captain, but not till he has weighed anchor, and is in the act of sailing; and in proof of his having so done, the said officer shall furnish a written document to the chief of the Custom-house, who shall deposit it in the archives.

S. 2. Should the officer, however, find on board slaves whose exportation is prohibited by this decree, or any of the articles enumerated in the annexed list, he shall report the case by writing to the chief of the Custom-house, in order for the latter to proceed in conformity with this decree.

Art. 11. Each transgression of this decree shall be punished with the forfeiture of the slaves who formed the subject matter of the offence.

S. 1. Every slave so forfeited shall immediately become free, and the competent authority shall furnish him with a certificate of manumission, on pain of suspension for non-fulfilment of this duty.

S. 2. The public authority is the legitimate guardian and trustee of those who have thus become freedmen; and it shall apprentice them by public auction to artizans, who shall enter into an undertaking to instruct them in their trades.

Art. 12. If in such cases in which, according to the preceding articles, forfeiture of slaves takes place, the whole or any part of them be not found in the act of seizure, a sequestration shall be laid on the goods of the owners, buyers, sellers, or conductors, all of whom shall be rendered responsible, in solidum, for the value of the slaves missing.

S. 1. The value of the slaves missing shall always be computed by the market price for the best slaves at the time of sequestration.

S. 2. The sequestration shall be made in such manner as to insure the fullest extent of responsibility, in case the value of the slaves missing should require to be multiplied, conformably with the penalties imposed on smugglers.

Art. 13. Non-compliance with the provisions of the clause to 2d article shall be punished, over and above the forfeiture of the slaves, with the other penalties imposed upon contraband traffic, which shall be applied in their different degrees according to the importance of the circumstances.

Art. 14. In all cases of omission or incorrectness in the fulfilment of the 4th article, the chief of the Custom-house shall incur such penalty as may be awarded against him, according to the gravity of his offence.

S. 1. The minimum of penalty shall be a mulct of four hundred milreis.

S. 2. The maximum shall be a mulct of one thousand two hundred milreis, with loss of office and inability to hold any other.

Art 15. Every master or captain of a vessel met to the southward of the twentieth degree of north latitude, and at less than two hundred miles distance from the continent of Africa, without a passport in the form prescribed by the 6th Article, or convicted of having performed that navigation without such passport, shall be punished with three years confinement in the galleys: and the owners, captain, or master of such vessel shall be liable, in solidum, to a mulct equal to half the value of the vessel.

Art. 16. The omission or negligence on the part of the civil authority, or of the functionary or officer referred to in Article 7, shall be punished with a mulct of six hundred milreis, payable by every one of them.

S. 1. This mulct shall be trebled, with forfeiture of their offices, and disqualification for all others, in case that any connivance on their part be proved.

Art. 17. The penalties imposed for smuggling are to be applied to the transgressors against the provisions contained in the 1st and 2d clauses of the 7th article.

In the case provided for by this article, an embargo shall immediately be laid upon the ship and her cargo, as a security for the mulcts which the captain or master, the mate, owner, or shipper may have incurred, and for which they will have to answer in solidum.

Art. 18. Every Custom-house Officer who in the case specified in the first clause of the 10th Article, gives in a false report, shall lose his office, become dis-disqualified for every other, and pay a mulct of 400 milreis.

S. 1. The chief authority at the Custom-house, who employed the officer by whom the false report was given in, shall likewise pay a mulct of 600,000 reis, if there should have been any negligence on his own part ; which mulct shall be trebled, with forfeiture of office, and disqualification for all other, should there be proof of his having been guilty of connivance.

Art. 19. The Governors, or principal authorities acting for them, in any part of the Portuguese dominions, where it may be proved, that owing to their remissness or negligence any exportation or importation of slaves, other than that permitted by the third Article of this decree, has taken place, shall forfeit their respective offices, and be rendered, during five years, incapable of exercising any others. Should there, however, be proof of connivance on their part too, they shall moreover be condemned to five years' transportation to some of the settlements in the interior of Africa, besides a mulct of 2,000 milreis each.

S. 1. The captains, or masters, and mates of slaving vessels, as well as the persons charged with the purchase or sale of the slaves, or their conveyance on board such vessels, shall be confined in the galleys during a period of from two to five years, and pay a mulct of from 500 to 2,000 milreis each, and in solidum.

S. 2. All other individuals found on board vessels employed in the said traffic, not comprized in the foregoing clause, shall be condemned to serve from two to four years on board national ships of war, without pay, and in the rating awarded to them by their sentence according to the importance of the circumstances.

Art. 20. All contravention of the provisions of this Decree is hereby declared to be a public crime ; and its prosecution becomes a special duty of the Procuradores Regios (Crown Attorneys) and their delegates, on pain of suspension. Any person, however, shall be competent to give information of such contravention.

Art. 21. With regard to the transgressions against this decree, no prescriptions shall prevent the taking cognizance of, or imposing penalties for them.

Art. 22. The magistrates of the several districts are the competent persons to take cognizance of offences against this decree, but their decisions may always be appealed from to the supreme tribunal of commerce.

S. 1. The magistrates, as well as the said tribunal, shall apportion the penalties, as may be just, and within the limits prescribed by this decree.

Art. 23. The Consuls and Vice Consuls of Portugal at any ports frequented by Portuguese vessels, are charged with the execution of the present decree; and may, on learning any transgression of it, require of the competent authorities of the country, the detention of the vessel, and the arrest of the criminal parties, whereupon they shall send the ship, her cargo, and the prisoners, to the Ministry of Marine, in order that cognizance may be taken of the case by the competent authority.

S. 1. Any Consul or Vice Consul convicted of remissness in the execution of this Article, shall be punished with the forfeiture of his office, and disqualification for any other.

S. 2. In case of connivance, he shall, in addition to incurring the penalties mentioned in the preceding clause, pay a mulct of from 2,000 to 5,000 milrees.

Art. 24. Of the sums arising from all the penalties imposed, and bonds unredemmed, one half shall go to the Treasury, and the other half to a fund from which the wants of the freedmen, who by virtue of this decree are to obtain their manumission, shall be supplied.

S. 1. The municipal chamber of each district shall administer this fund, and render an account of its administration to the competent authority.

S. 2. In case of information being given, the amount amount of the penalty shall be divided into three portions, one to go to the Treasury, another to the freed-men's fund, and the third to the informer.

S. 3. In case of apprehension effected on land, or in port, the sum which legally belongs to the apprehenders shall be set apart, before the division stated in the preceding clause is proceeded to.

S. 4. In cases of capture at sea, the dispositions of the anterior laws and regulations, shall be followed in the division of the prize.

Art. 25. The present Decree shall be published in the usual form by the governors of the ultra-marine dominions as soon as received by them; and they shall, moreover, give a copy of it to each of the municipal chambers, to the respective Custom-houses, and to the juizes de direito (magistrates.)

S. 1. Copies of this decree shall be sent from the Foreign Office to the Portuguese Legations and Consulates in every foreign country.

The Secretaries of State of the several departments shall so understand it, and cause it to be carried into effect.

 several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the

 and to consider also the state of the several cathe-sioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date

 day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six ; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should paring and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law ; and that the diocese of York consist of the county of York, except such parts thereof as it was proposed to include in the new diocese of Ripon ; and that the diocese of Durham be increased by that part of the county of Northumberland called Hexhamshire, which was then in the diocese of York ; and that the diocese of Ripon consist of that part of the county of York which was then in the diocese of Chester, of the deanry of Craven, and of such parts of the deanries of the Ainsty and Pontefract, in the county and diocese of York, as lie to the westward of the following districts, viz. the liberty of the Ainsty, and the wapentakes of Barkston Ash, Osgoldcross, and Staincross ; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate ; and that such variations be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts ; and that such alterations be made in the apportionment or exchange of ecclesiastical patronage among the several bishops as should be consistent with the relative magnitude and importance of their dioceses when newly arranged, and as should afford an adequate quantity of patronage to the bishops of the new sees ; and that in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums be paid to the Commissioners out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively as should, upon due enquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop

Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells respectively five thousand pounds ; and that out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amounts as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds ; and that if in determining the mode of regulating the episcopal incomes, either in the first instance or on any future revision of them, it should be deemed expedient to make the alteration required in any case by the subtraction or addition of any real estates, such real estates be transferred accordingly ; and that the bishops who should, on the then existing vacancies, succeed to the sees of Durham and Ely, be relieved from the excess beyond their due proportion payable for first fruits, and that the residue of the sums due be paid by the Commissioners out of the surplus funds arising from those sees ; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop ; and that a fit residence be provided for the Bishop of Ripon :

tion of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

tes-

testified as aforesaid, that such parts of the property, possessions, and revenues of the said Archbishop and of the see of York, as are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed (which schedule we recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), shall, according to the provisions of the said Act, be transferred from the said Edward Archbishop of York, and his successors in the said see of York, to the said Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and his successors bishops of Ripon, in part endowment of the said bishopric of Ripon, to be by him and them held and enjoyed in right of the see of Ripon for ever.

and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every every such Order that the same be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whercof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, so soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act of Parliament, passed in this present year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports " of the Commissioners appointed to consider the " state of the Established Church in England and " Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and " revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal
 " dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to
 the

the bishoprics of Lichfield and Coventry and Worcester.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert James Bishop of Worcester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the whole archdeaconry of Coventry, in the county of Warwick, now forming part of the diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to the diocese of Worcester.

And we further recommend and propose, that the remaining part of the said diocese of Lichfield and Coventry, and the see thereof, shall be called and known by the name of the Diocese and See of Lichfield; and that the Right Reverend Samuel now Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, and his successors in the said see, shall be respectively called and styled Bishop of Lichfield: and that such alteration of name and style shall not prejudice or affect any right, privilege, or power which may now by law be exercised or enjoyed by the said bishop, by the name and style of Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said archdeaconry of Coventry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Samuel now Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, and of every future Bishop of Lichfield, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Robert James Bishop of Worcester, and his successors bishops of Worcester, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the right of appointing the archdeacon of Coventry shall be

be vested in the said Bishop of Worcester, and his successors bishops of Worcester, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the advowson and right of presentation of and to the rectory of Saint Philip, in the town of Birmingham, in the said county of Warwick, with all rights, endowments, and privileges thereunto by law belonging, and the advowson, right of patronage and nomination, and of licensing the Minister or Perpetual Curate of Christ Church, in the same town and county, which are now respectively vested in the Bishop of Lichfield and Coventry, shall be transferred to the said Robert James Bishop of Worcester, and his successors bishops of Worcester, and be vested in him and them in right of the see of Worcester, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said bishoprics of Lichfield and Worcester respectively, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this twenty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six..

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council; now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly pub-published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the dioceses of Worcester and Lichfield respectively.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JANUARY 31,

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that if the inhabitant householders of any town or borough in England and Wales shall petition Us to grant to them a charter of incorporation, it shall be lawful for Us, by any such charter (if we shall think fit, by advice of Our Privy Council, to grant the same) to extend to the inhabitants of any such town or borough within the district to be set forth in such charter, the powers and provisions in the said Act contained : provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Us to order that the same be taken into consideration by Our Privy Council, shall be published by Royal Proclamation in the London Gazette one month at least before such petition shall be so considered :

And whereas, the inhabitant householders of the town and parish of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the town and parish of Ramsgate, wherein there are three acting justices of the peace, who are appointed by the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, one of whom only constantly resides there, is a limb of the town and port of Sandwich, one of the Cinque Ports, and within the liberties thereof, which latter place contains only about three thousand souls :

And further, that the town of Ramsgate is at present governed by two local Acts, made and passed in the twenty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, the one intituled “ An Act for the better paving, cleansing, repairing, lighting, cleaning, and watching the highway, streets and lanes of and in the vill of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, and for removing and preventing annoyances therein, and for erecting a market-house and holding a public market in the said vill ;” and the other intituled “ An Act to enlarge the powers of the last-mentioned Act ;” which said two several Acts, from the lapse of time, the greatly increased population, and extent of the town (which, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, was, by an Act of Parliament, separated from the parish of Saint Lawrence, and made a distinct parish), and its altered circumstances, are wholly insufficient for the purpose intended and therein set forth :

And further, that the undersigned, most dutiful and loyal subjects, the inhabitant householders of the town and parish of Ramsgate, are desirous of being incorporated by charter, agreeably to the provisions of the first recited Act, inasmuch as the population of the town and parish of Ramsgate amounts, at present, to about nine thousand souls, and during a great part of the year, very many strangers resort thereto :

And further, that the said town of Ramsgate has an extensive harbour for the accommodation and protection of English and Foreign ships, and their crews, who frequently take shelter there, in great numbers, to the amount, sometimes, of between three and four hundred sail of vessels :

And further, that the population of the town and parish of Ramsgate, being oftentimes greatly increased, from the several causes above related, the petitioners most humbly beg to shew the necessity for a strong and vigilant government, such as the powers conferred by the Municipal Corporation Act would furnish them with ; thereby enabling them to regulate and maintain the peace and quiet of their town, and to afford protection and security to the lives and property of all :

And further, that the petitioners, being also desirous of having a commission of the peace assigned to their town, for the convenient and speedy administration of justice, humbly beg to show that to subject them to the authority of justices of the peace to be assigned to a town (Sandwich) in the one case, seven miles distant, and in the other (Dover), twenty-one miles distant, would be a great grievance and inconvenience, putting them to much expence and trouble :

The petitioners, therefore, most humbly pray, that under the circumstances above stated, and from the increasing population and prosperity of the town of Ramsgate, We would be graciously pleased, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to grant them a charter of incorporation under the powers and provisions of the said recited Act :

Now, therefore, We, having taken the said petition into consideration, do hereby give notice, that Our Privy Council will take the same into consideration on the twenty-eighth day of February next ensuing the date hereof.

Given at our Court at Brighton, this twenty-eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

And whereas the inhabitant householders of the town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, in the county of Devon, have presented a petition to Us, setting forth therein, amongst other things, that the town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, is not a town corporate ; but the petitioners submit, that it is expedient that the said town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, should be incorporated ; the petitioners, therefore, most humbly pray, that We will be pleased, under the provisions of the said recited Act, to grant to the inhabitants of the said town of Devonport, and parish of Stoke Damerel, a separate charter of incorporation ; and that We will also be pleased, by such charter, to extend tend to the said inhabitants within such district, as shall or may be set forth in Our Royal Charter, the several powers and provisions in the said Act contained:

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, January 31, 1837.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by His Majesty to acquaint you, that His Majesty continues to receive from all Foreign Powers the strongest assurances of their friendly disposition ; and His Majesty trusts that the experience of the blessings which peace confers upon nations will tend to confirm and secure the present tranquillity.

His Majesty laments that the civil contest which has agitated the Spanish Monarchy has not yet been brought to a close ; but His Majesty has continued to afford to the Queen of Spain that aid which, by the Treaty of Quadruple Alliance of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, His Majesty engaged to give, if it should become necessary ; and His Majesty rejoices that His co-operating force has rendered useful assistance to the troops of Her Catholic Majesty.

Events have happened in Portugal, which for a time threatened to disturb the internal peace of that country. His Majesty ordered, in consequence, a temporary augmentation of His naval force in the Tagus, for the more effectual protection of the persons and property of His subjects resident in Lisbon ; and the Admiral commanding His Majesty's squadron was authorised, in case of need, to afford protection to the person of the Queen of Portugal, without, however, interfering in those constitutional questions which divided the conflicting parties.

His Majesty has directed the reports of the Commissioners appointed to enquire into the state of the province of Lower Canada to be laid before you, and has ordered us to call your attention to that important subject.

We have also in charge to recommend for your serious deliberation those provisions which will be submitted to you for the improvement of the law and of the administration of justice; assuring you that His Majesty's anxiety for the accomplishment of these objects remains undiminished.

We are enjoined to convey to you His Majesty's desire that you should consult upon such further measures as may give increased stability to the Established Church, and promote concord and goodwill.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The estimates of the year have been prepared with every desire to meet the exigencies of the public service in the spirit of a wise economy. His Majesty has directed them to be laid before you without delay. The increase of the revenue has hitherto more than justified the expectations created by the receipts of former years.

His Majesty recommends an early renewal of your inquiries into the operation of the Act permitting the establishment of Joint Stock Banks. The best security against the mismanagement of banking affairs must ever be found in the capacity and integrity of those who are entrusted with the administration of them, and in the caution and the prudence of the public; but no legislative regulation should be omitted which can increase and ensure the stability of establishments upon which commercial credit so much depends.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty has more especially commanded us to bring under notice the state of Ireland, and the wisdom of adopting all such measures as may improve the condition of that part of the United Kingdom. His Majesty recommends to your early consideration the present constitution of the municipal corporations of that country, the laws which regulate the collection of tithes, and the difficult but pressing question of establishing some legal provision for the poor, guarded by prudent regulations, and by such precautions against abuse as your experience and knowledge of the subject enable you to suggest.

His Majesty commits these great interests into your hands, in the confidence that you will be able to frame laws in accordance with the wishes of His Majesty and the expectations of His people. His Majesty is persuaded, that should this hope be fulfilled, you will not only contribute to the welfare of Ireland, but strengthen the law and constitution of these realms, by securing their benefits to all classes of His Majesty's subjects.

Whitehall, February 2, 1837.

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unto the Right Honourable Francis William Earl of Charlemont, K. P. and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Charlemont, of Charlemont, in the county of Arniagh; with remainder, in default of such issue male, to the Honourable Henry Caulfeild, of Hackly, in the said 1837. N county

county of Armagh (brother of the said Francis William Earl of Charlemont), and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten.

Whitehall, January 30, 1837.

The King taking into His royal consideration that, upon the decease of Thomas Baron Kingsale, of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, the title and dignity of Baron Kingsale devolved upon his nephew John-Stapleton, now Baron Kingsale, as eldest son of Michael de Courcy, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable Michael de Courcy), Captain in the Royal Navy, deceased, who was heir presumptive to the said barony; but that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brother and sister of the said John-Stapleton Baron Kingsale cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their father, Michael de Courcy, had survived his brother, Thomas Baron Kingsale, and succeeded to the said title and dignity; His Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that William Almericus de Courcy, of Salcombe, in the county of Devon, Esq. and Catharine Savery de Lisle, wife of Francis Bernard Beamish, of the city of Cork, Esq. the brother and sister of John-Stapleton, now Baron Kingsale, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father, Michael de Courcy, had succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Kingsale:

And His Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

A DISPATCH, dated the 17th of March 1837, has been received by the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, G. C. B. His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Henry Canning, Esq. His Majesty's Consul-General and Chargé d'Affaires at Hamburgh, transmitting a law made at Bremen, for the prohibition of the slave-trade, of which the following is a translation:

(Translation.)

ALTHOUGH the slave trade is a traffic which has always been foreign to the trade and navigation of Bremen, yet the wish that our laws should accord in regard to it with those of the great Sea Powers, in order to our becoming a party to their Treaties for the total abolition of the traffic in slaves, has occasioned us to take the subject into careful consideration, and has caused the following penal law to be agreed upon at a meeting of the Bürger Convent, in Bremen, on the 4th of November last year:

Penal Law against the Traffic in Slaves.

Art. 1. The traffic known under the name of slave trade, which has for object to provide North and South America, or the West Indies, with negro negro slaves from the African coast, together with all trades in connection with it, is hereby prohibited in the free State of Bremen and its dependencies, and shall be deemed criminal.

Art. 2. Whosoever, either as owner, freighter, captain, mate, or supercargo, fits out or sails a vessel for the purpose of the slave trade mentioned in article 1, or who carries on the slave trade, or allows the fitting out or carrying on through any other person, or takes part therein, or assists in the offence as money-lender or treasurer, shall, according to circumstances, whether the vessel be stopped before her departure from the port of outfit, or after her departure, and even before commencing any slave seizures or slave trade; or lastly, after any actual perpetration of slave seizing or slave trading, be condemned to imprisonment in the house of correction from one to fifteen years, and to pay a fine of from two hundred to five thousand rix dollars, and to the loss of his citizenship and all other municipal rights appertaining to him, and of his right to carry the Bremen flag. And further, according to circumstances, the confiscation of the vessel, her furniture, and cargo also may be made.

Art. 3. Foreigners who in the territory of Bremen, or on board of Bremen vessels, are guilty of the offences described in the foregoing articles, or who make use of the Bremen flag, or who fit out, or cause to be fitted out, on Bremen territory, vessels under foreign flags to carry on the slave trade, shall be punished according to the present law.

Art. 4. All other acts tending to violate the prohibition contained in article 1, which may not have been named in articles 2 and 3, are equally subject to fine and imprisonment, according to circumstances, and may equally take away the right to carry the Bremen flag.

The

The Senate in promulgating the foregoing law for the observance of every body, places confidence in the inhabitants of Bremen, that they will abstain in future, as they have done hitherto, from any the most distant participation in the dishonourable offence described in the aforesaid law.

Done at Bremen, in the Assembly of the Senate, on the 15th, and promulgated on the 20th, February 1837.

Windsor-Castle, March 31, 1837.

His Grace, kneeling near the Sovereign, and Deputy Garter presenting on his knee the Garter, His Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness the Duke of Cambridge, and the Marquess Camden, the two senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Grace's left leg, the Prelate pronouncing the usual admonition.

Deputy Garter next presented, in like manner, the ribband with the Gorge, and His Majesty, with the assistance of the said two senior Knights Companions, put the same over his Grace's left shoulder, the Prelate pronouncing the admonition; the Duke having again kissed the Sovereign's hand, and received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, withdrew.

The Chapter being ended, Deputy Garter again called over the Knights Companions, who, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign with the accustomed reverences.

At the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of April 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled " An Act to repeal the " several laws relating to the performance of quaran- " tine, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that from and after the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, all vessels, as well His Majesty's ships of war as others, coming from, or having touched at, any place from whence His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His or Their Privy Council, should have adjudged and declared it probable that the plague, or other infectious disease or distemper, highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, might be brought, and all vessels and boats receiving any person, goods, wares, and merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other articles whatsoever, from or out of any vessel so coming from, or having touched at, such infected place as aforesaid, whether such persons, goods, wares, and merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles, should have come or been brought in such vessels, or such persons should have gone, or articles should have been put, on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such ships or vessels at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, and whether such vessels were or were not bound to any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands aforesaid, and all persons goods, wares, and merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or any other articles whatsoever, on board any vessels so coming from, or having touched at, such infected place as aforesaid, or on board of any such receiving vessels or boats as aforesaid, should be, and be considered to be, liable to quarantine within the meaning of the said Act, and of any Order or Orders which should be made by His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by and with the advice of His or Their Privy Council, concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection, from the time of the departure of such vessels from such infected place as aforesaid, or from the time when such persons, goods, wares, merchandise, packets, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles, should have been received on board respectively; and that such vessels and boats as aforesaid, and all persons (as well pilots as others), goods, wares, and merchandises, and other articles as aforesaid, whether coming or brought in such vessels or boats from such infected place as aforesaid, or going or being put on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands aforesaid, and all persons, goods, wares, and merchandises, and other articles as aforesaid, on board such receiving vessel or boat as aforesaid, should, from their arrival at any such port or place, be obliged to perform quarantine in such place or places, for such time, and in such manner, as should, from time to time, be directed by His Majesty, His heirs or successors, by His or Their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation or published in the London Gazette:

And whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the nineteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and duly published in the London Gazette, after reciting the said Act, His Majesty was pleased to adjudge and declare it probable, that the plague, or some other infectious disease or distemper,

highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, may be brought into the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, by vessels coming from the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, or the Atlantic Ocean, with or without clean bills of health; and, by the same Order, His Majesty was pleased to order, that all vessels, as well His Majesty's ships of war as all others (not having the plague or such other infectious disease or distemper as aforesaid actually on board) coming from the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary, or the Atlantic Ocean, with clean bills of health, and all vessels and boats receiving any person or persons, goods, wares, or merchandise, packets, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, hooks, letters, or any other articles whatever, from or out of any such vessel, before such vessel should have performed, and should be duly discharged from, quarantine, whether such person or persons, goods, wares, or merchandise, or other articles as aforesaid, should have come or been brought in such vessel, or such person or persons should have gone, or such articles have been put, on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessel, and whether such vessel was or was not bound to any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, with all persons (as well pilots as others), goods, wares, and merchandise, and other articles as aforesaid on board thereof, perform such quarantine, for such time, in such manner, and at such places, as are thereafter directed, that is to say, it is thereby ordered, that all such vessels as should be bound to any port in Ireland should perform quarantine, at the several places in the said Order mentioned in that behalf respectively :

And whereas, by another Order in Council, dated the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, duly published in the London Gazette, His Majesty was pleased to revoke so much of the said former Order in Council as related to the places for performing quarantine by ships arriving at any port in Ireland; and His Majesty was pleased, by the said Order of the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, that all such ships or vessels, liable to quarantine, as were or should be bound to any port in Ireland, with clean bills of health, and not having on board any of the articles enumerated in the thirty-first section of the said Order in Council of the nineteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, should perform quarantine at one of the following stations, that is to say, Poolbeg in the harbour of Dublin, Warren Point in the harbour of Newry, near Gramoyle in the harbour of Belfast, Tarbut in the River Shannon, in the harbour of Limerick, Baltimore Passage, River Suir in the harbour of Waterford, White Gate, Cove of Cork, Green Castle, Lough, Foyle, and Black Rock, Galway Bay :

Now it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that so much of the said last mentioned Order as appoints Poolbeg, in the harbour of Dublin, one of the places at which quarantine may be performed by vessels arriving at any port in Ireland, shall be, and the same is hereby, revoked; and it is further ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, that all ships and vessels which, if this Order had not been made, might have performed quarantine at Poolbeg aforesaid, may henceforth perform quarantine at Kingstown, in the bay of Dublin, from and after the fifth day of July next :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council, for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the preceding session of Parliament, for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Ma-

Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette (whenever it shall be deemed expedient), to levy and charge any additional or countervailing duty or duties of tonnage upon or in respect of any vessels which shall enter any of the ports in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or in any of His Majesty's dominions, and which shall belong to any foreign country in which any duties of tonnage shall have been, or shall be, levied upon or in respect of British vessels entering the ports of such country, higher or greater than are levied or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country; provided always, that such additional or countervailing tonnage duties, so to be levied and charged as aforesaid, shall not be of greater amount than may be deemed fairly to countervail the difference of duty paid in such foreign country upon or in respect of the tonnage of British vessels, more than the duty there charged or granted upon or in respect of the vessels of such country:

And whereas British vessels, entering the ports of Portugal from the ports of the United Kingdom, are, by a decree of the twenty-fourth November one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, charged with a tonnage duty from one half of which all Portuguese vessels are exempt, such surcharge varying from five pence farthing to one shilling one penny and one eighth per ton, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the said Act, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that from and after the date of this Order, there shall be charged on all Portuguese vessels which shall enter any of the ports of the United Kingdom, a duty of nine pence per ton, such duty to be levied, collected, recovered, and applied in such and the like manner as any duties or customs are now by law levied, collected, and applied:

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled " An Act for " carrying into effect the reports of the Com" missioners appointed to consider the state of " the Established Church in England and Wales,
" with reference to ecclesiastical duties and re-
" venues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses,
" revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by com-mendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls ;
and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices ; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made
four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-

twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six ; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law ; and that the diocese of Ely should be increased by the counties of Huntingdon and Bedford, then in the diocese of Lincoln, by the deanries of Lynn and Fincham, in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich, and by the archdeconry of Sudbury, in the county of Suffolk and diocese of Norwich, with the exception of the deanries of Sudbury, Stow, and Hartismere, and by that part of the county of Cambridge which was then in the diocese of Norwich ; and that the diocese of Norwich should consist of the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, except those parts which it was proposed to transfer to the diocese of Ely ; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, should be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate ; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts ; and that in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums be paid to the Commissioners out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income ; to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells respectively five thousand pounds; and that the bishops who should, on the then existing vacancies, succeed to the sees of Durham and Ely, should be relieved from the excess beyond their due proportion payable for first fruits, and that the residue of the sums due should be paid by the Commissioners out of the surplus funds arising from those sees; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; and that the limits of the other existing deanries and archdeaconries should be newly arranged, so that every parish and extra parochial place be within a rural deanry, and every deanry within an archdeaconry, and that no archdeaconry extend beyond the limits of one diocese; and that all the archdeaconries of England and Wales should be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate:

It is enacted, amongst other things that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer

chequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty, under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette :

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were include in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled
 “ An Act for carrying into effect the reports
 “ of the Commissioners appointed to con“ sider

“ sider the state of the Established Church in “ England and Wales, with reference to ecclesias“ tical duties and revenues, so far as they relate
 “ to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage,”

 humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the bishoprics of Lincoln, Norwich, and Ely.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of sealed this scheme, that the whole archdeaconry and county of Bedford, and so much of the archdeaconry of Huntingdon as is included in, and co-extensive with, the county of Huntingdon, now forming part of the diocese of Lincoln, shall be detached and dissevered from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the diocese of Ely ; and that the said archdeaconry of Bedford, and such part as aforesaid of the said archdeaconry of Huntington, and all parishes and places, churches and said archdeaconry of Bedford, and within such parts as aforesaid of the said archdeaconry of Huntingdon, authority, and controul of the present and every future bishop of Lincoln, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the Right Reverend Joseph, now Bishop of Ely, and of his successors, bishops of Ely, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that the parish of Rickinghall Inferior, in the deanry of Blackburne, but nnited with the parish of Rickinghall Superior, in the deanry of Hartismere, both in the archdeaconry of Sudbury, and in the diocese of Norwich, the see whereof is now vacant, shall be detached from the said deanry of Blackburne, and included in the said deanry of Hartismere; and that the said last mentioned deanry, and the deanry of Stow, also in the said archdeaconry of Sudbury, shall be detached and dissevered from the said deanry of Sudbury, and shall be included in, and form part of, the archdeaconry of Suffolk, in the same diocese; and that the rural deans of the said two last mentioned deanries, and the whole clergy thereof, and of the said parish of Rickinghall Inferior. shall be exempted and released from the jurisdiction of the present and every future archdeacon of Sudbury, and be under and subject to the jurisdiction of the archdeacon of Suffolk for the time being; and that the archdeaconry of Sudbury, with the exceptions aforesaid, shall be detached and dissevered from the said diocese of Norwich, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the said diocese of Ely; and that the said archdeaconry of Sudbury, with the exceptions aforesaid, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future Archdeacon of Sudbury, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects within the same archdeaconry, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said sec of Norwich, and every bishop thereof, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the said Joseph, now Bishop of Ely, and of his successors, bishops of Ely, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that no-

nothing herein contained shall in any manner affect any personal union heretofore granted by any bishop of Norwich, according to the usage of the see of Norwich, for enabling any spiritual person to hold together two livings, as it regards any livings, either both or one only of which will, according to this scheme, be transferred to the said diocese of Ely.

And we further recommend and propose, that, the deanry of Camps, in the said diocese of Ely, and in the archdeaconry of Ely, shall be detached and dis severed from the said archdeaconry of Ely, and shall be included in, and form part of, the said archdeaconry of Sudbury ; and that the rural dean, and the whole clergy of the said deanry, shall be exempted and released from the jurisdiction of the present and every future Archdeacon of Ely, and be under and subject to the jurisdiction of the archdeacon of Sudbury for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that the right of appointing the archdeacons of Bedford, Huntingdon, and Sudbury shall be vested in the said Bishop of Ely, and his successors, bishops of Ely, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that, for the purposes of the said Act, and so as to leave to the Bishop of Ely, for the time being, an average annual income of five thousand five hundred pounds, the said Joseph, now Bishop of Ely, and his successors, bishops of Ely, for the time being, shall pay, or cause to be paid, to our credit, into the Bank of England to an account, intituled " Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," by half yearly payments, on or before the fifth day of April, and the fifth day of October, in every year, the fixed annual sum of two thousand five hundred pounds ; and that the first of such payments shall become due on the fifth day day of October now next ensuing, and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Ely shall happen on any other day than the fifth day of April, or fifth day of October, the then next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time that shall have elapsed from the fifth day of April or fifth day of October preceding (as the case may be), to the day of the vacancy, inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid by the respective parties accordingly.

And we further recommend and propose, that two third parts only of the sum heretofore paid by bishops of Ely respectively, on account of first fruits, shall be paid by the said Joseph Bishop of Ely, and that the remaining one third part thereof shall be paid by us, out of the moneys so to be paid, to our credit and account as aforesaid.

And we further recommend and propose, that the fees and stipends granted out of the revenues of the said see of Ely, by the last or any preceding Bishop of Ely, to any secular officer of the isle of Ely, who held his office by patent for life at the time of the passing of an Act of the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for extinguishing the " secular jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York
" and the Bishop of Ely, in certain liberties in the " counties of York, Nottingham, and Cambridge," shall henceforward during the life of such officer, whether his said office shall have been abolished by the said Act or not, be paid by us out of that portion of the revenues of the said see of Ely which shall be so as aforesaid paid to our credit and account.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said bishopricks of Lincoln, Norwich, and

and Ely respectively, in conformity to the provisions of the said first recited Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this twelfth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council; now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the several dioceses of Lincoln, Norwich, and Ely.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court, at St. James's, the 26th day of April 1837,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date at Westminster the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, His Majesty was graciously pleased to grant unto Charles Terry and William Parker, therein described, their executors, administrators, and assigns, an especial licence, full power, sole privilege, and authority, from time to time and at all times thereafter, during the term of fourteen years therein expressed, to make, use, exercise, and vend their invention of certain improvements in making and in refining sugar, as well within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, as also in all His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad:

And whereas a specification of the said invention, and of the manner in which the same is to be performed, was duly enrolled, pursuant to the proviso for that purpose in the said letters patent contained:

And whereas the said Charles Terry hath, by a pe-

petition, addressd to His Majesty in Council, humbly represented, that the said invention will be productive of great benefit and advantage to all such of His Majesty's subjects as are engaged or interested in the making or refining of sugar, and more particularly beneficial and important to all His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, which depend in a great measure upon the cultivation of the sugar cane, and the manufacture of sugar therefrom; that the said William Parker is now, and has been for several months, in the island of Jamaica, and is occupied in arranging measures for bringing the said invention into general use in that island; that the petitioner and the said William Parker have incurred considerable expence in bringing the said invention into use, as well within the United Kingdom as in some of His Majesty's dominions in the West Indies; and although the said letters patent extend to all His Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, it is convenient, and, as regards some colonies, conformable to usage, for the more effectual maintenance of the right thereby granted, that the said letters patent, or certified copies thereof, should be respectively enrolled in the proper Offices of Registry in His Majesty's several colonies and plantations abroad; and therefore, praying that His Majesty will be graciously pleased, by an Order in Council, to order and direct, that the said letters patent and the specification of the said invention, or certified copies of the said letters patent and specification respectively, may be inrolled in the Office of the Colonial Secretary, or in the proper Office or Offices for the Registration of Deeds within His Majesty's colonies of British Guiana and Trinidad respectively:

His Majesty is, therefore, pleas'd, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that if the said Charles Terry and William Parker shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, in the Office of the Colonial Secretary, or in the Office for the Registration of Deeds within the colonies of British Guiana and Trinidad respectively, true and perfect copies of the said letters patent and specification; and if to such copies so deposited there shall be annexed the affidavit or affidavits of one or more credible witness or witnesses, to be sworn before the Colonial Secretary or Registrar of Deeds with whom the same may be deposited, to the effect of such witness or witnesses having diligently compared such copies with the original letters patent and specification, and found the same to be true, perfect, and exact copies thereof, in every respect (which oath such Colonial Secretary or Registrar of Deeds is hereby authorised to administer), then and in that case each and every copy of the said letters patent and specification respectively, with the said affidavit or affidavits annexed, shall, within the colony in which the same shall be so deposited, be and be deemed, taken, and reputed to be, to all intents and purposes, as valid and effectual as the original of the said letters patent or specification, if there exhibited and produced, could or might be :

And it is hereby further ordered, that in all courts, and before all judges, justices, and others whom it may concern, in His Majesty's colonies of British Guiana and Trinidad, whenever and so often as it may be necessary to make proof of the said letters patent or specification, it shall be competent for the said Charles Terry and William Parker, and their assigns, to produce and give in evidence such copies thereof, so to be deposited as aforesaid in the Office of the Colonial Secretary or Registrar of Deeds of the said respective colonies :

By the 2d article of this tariff it is provided, that "every foreign vessel arriving in the ports of the Republic shall pay twelve ryals for each ton, to which duty even national vessels shall remain subject, without any abatement whatever, when they come directly from a foreign port. The anchorage duty continues abolished for one and the other."

I have to add that, by a law, passed on the 8th of last month, it is declared, that the abatement of duty now granted on goods imported in national vessels shall cease within four months, counted from the date of the law: provision being thus made for the fulfilment of the stipulations contained in the 6th article of the treaty, which will come into effect on the 19th July next, and by which it is agreed that the same duties shall be paid on the importation into the territories of Mexico of any article, the growth, produce, or manufacture of His Majesty's dominions, whether such importation shall be in Mexican or British vessels.

Whitehall, June 20, 1837.

ON Tuesday morning, the twentieth of June instant, at twelve minutes past two o'clock, our late Most Gracious Sovereign King William the Fourth, expired at His Castle of Windsor, in the seventy-second year of His age, and the seventh year of His reign. This event has caused one universal feeling of regret and sorrow to His late Majesty's faithful and attached subjects, to whom He was endeared by the deep interest in their welfare which he invariably manifested, as well as by the many manly virtues, which marked and adorned His character.

Upon the intimation of this distressing event, the Lords of the Privy Council assembled this day, at Kensington-palace, and gave orders for proclaiming Her present Majesty, who made a most gracious declaration to them, and caused all the Lords and others of the late King's Privy Council, who were then present, to be sworn of Her Majesty's Privy Council.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God to call to His Mercy Our late Sovereign Lord King William the Fourth, of blessed and glorious memory, by whose decease the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is solely and rightfully come to the High and Mighty Princess Alexandrina Victoria, saving the rights of any issue of His late Majesty King William the Fourth which may be borne of His late Majesty's Consort: We, therefore, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of this Realm, being here assisted with these of His late Majesty's Privy Council, with numbers of others principal Gentlemen of Quality, with the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of London, do now hereby, with one voice and consent of tongue and heart, publish and proclaim that the High and Mighty Princess Alexandrina Victoria is now, by the death of Our late Sovereign, of happy memory, become our only lawful and rightful Liege Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, saving as aforesaid. To whom, saving as aforesaid, we do acknowledge all faith and constant obedience with all hearty and humble affection, beseeching God, by whom Kings and Queens do reign, to bless the Royal Princess Victoria, with long and happy years to reign over us.

At the Court at Kensington, the 20th day of June 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty being this day present in Council, was pleased to make the following Declaration, viz.

THE severe and afflicting loss which the Nation has sustained by the death of His Majesty, my beloved Uncle, has devolved upon me the duty of administering the Government of this Empire. This awful responsibility is imposed upon me so suddenly, and at so early a period of my life, that I should feel myself utterly oppressed by the burthen were I not sustained by the hope that Divine Providence, which has called me to this work, will give me strength for the performance of it, and that I shall find in the purity of my intentions, and in my zeal for the public welfare, that support and those resources which usually belong to a more mature age, and to longer experience.

I place my firm reliance upon the wisdom of Parliament, and upon the loyalty and affection of my People. I esteem it also a peculiar advantage, that I succeed to a Sovereign whose constant regard for the rights and liberties of his Subjects, and whose desire to promote the amelioration of the Laws and Institutions of the Country, have rendered his name the object of general attachment and veneration.

Educated in England, under the tender and enlightened care of a most affectionate Mother, I have learned from my Infancy to respect and love the Constitution of my Native Country.

It will be my unceasing study to maintain the Reformed Religion as by Law established, securing at the same time to all the full enjoyment of Religious Liberty ; and I shall steadily protect the rights, and promote to the utmost of my power, the happiness and welfare of all classes of my Subjects.

Whereupon the Lords of the Council made it their humble request to Her Majesty, that Her Majesty's most gracious Declaration to their Lordships might be made public, which Her Majesty was pleased to order accordingly.

A PROCLAMATION,

For the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality.

VICTORIA, R.

WE, most seriously and religiously considering that it is an indispensable duty on Us to be careful, above all other things, to preserve and advance the honour and service of Almighty God, and to discourage and suppress all vice, profaneness, debauchery, and immorality, which are so highly displeasing to God, so great a reproach to Our Religion and Government, and (by means of the frequent ill examples of the practices thereof) have so fatal a tendency to the corruption of many of Our loving subjects, otherwise religiously and virtuously disposed, and which (if not timely remedied) may justly draw down the Divine vengeance on Us and Our Kingdom; We also humbly acknowledging that We cannot expect the blessing and goodness of Almighty God (by whom Kings reign and on which We entirely rely) to make Our reign happy and prosperous to Ourselves and Our people, without a religious observance of God's holy laws; to the intent therefore, that religion, piety, and good manners may (according to Our most hearty desire) flourish and increase under Our Administration and Government, We have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare Our Royal purpose and resolution to discountenance and punish all manner of vice, profaneness, and immorality in all persons, of whatsoever degree or quality, within this Our realm, and particularly in such as are employed near Our Royal Per-

Person; and that for the encouragement of religion and morality, We will, upon all occasions, distinguish persons of piety and virtue by marks of Our Royal favour; and We do expect and require, that all persons of honour or in place of authority will give good example, by their own virtue and piety, and to their utmost contribute to the discountenancing persons of dissolute and debauched lives, that they, being reduced by that means to shame and contempt for their loose and evil actions and behaviour, may be thereby also enforced the sooner to reform their ill habits and practices, and that the visible displeasure of good men towards them may (as far as it is possible) supply what the laws (probably) cannot altogether prevent: and We do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all Our loving subjects, of what degree or quality soever, from playing on the Lord's Day at dice, cards, or any other game whatsoever, either in public or private houses, or other place or places whatsoever; and We do hereby require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the worship of God on every Lord's Day, on pain of Our highest displeasure, and of being proceeded against with the utmost rigour that may be by law: and for the more effectual reforming all such persons who, by reason of their dissolute lives and conversations, are a scandal to Our Kingdom, Our further pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all other Our subjects whom it may concern, to be very vigilant and strict in the discovery and the effectual prosecution and punishment of all persons who shall be guilty of excessive drinking, blasphemy, profane swearing and cursing, lewdness, profanation of the Lord's Day, or other dissolute, immoral, or disorderly practices; and that they take care also

effectually to suppress all public gaming-houses and places, and other lewd and disorderly houses, and to put in execution the Statute, made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled “ An Act for “ the better observation of the Lord’s Day, commonly called Sunday ;” and also so much of an Act of Parliament, made in the ninth year of the reign of the late King William the Third, intituled “ An Act for the more effectual suppressing of “ blasphemy and profaneness,” as is now in force, and all other laws now in force for the punishing and suppressing any of the vices aforesaid ; and also to suppress and prevent all gaming whatsoever in public or private houses on the Lord’s Day ; and likewise that they take effectual care to prevent all persons keeping taverns, chocolate-houses, coffee-houses, or other public houses whatsoever, from selling wine, chocolate, coffee, ale, beer, or other liquors, or receiving or permitting guests to be or remain in such their houses, in the time of Divine Service on the Lord’s Day, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon pain of Our highest displeasure : And, for the more effectual proceeding herein, We do hereby direct and command all Our Judges of Assize and Justices of the Peace to give strict charges at their respective assizes and sessions for the due prosecution and punishment of all persons that shall presume to offend in any of the kinds aforesaid, and also of all persons that, contrary to their duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said laws in execution, and that they do, at their respective assizes and quarter sessions of the peace, cause this Our Royal Proclamation to be publicly read in open Court, immediately before the charge is given : and We do hereby further charge and command every Minister, in his respective parish church or chapel, to read, or cause to be read, this Our Proclamation, at least four times in every year, immediately after Divine Service, and to incite and stir up their respective auditories to the practice of piety and virtue, and the avoiding of all immorality and profaneness: And, to the end that all vice and debauchery may be prevented, and religion and virtue practised by all officers, private soldiers, mariners, and others who are employed in Our service by sea and land, We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Commanders and Officers whatsoever, that they do take care to avoid all profaneness, debauchery, and other immoralities, and that, by their own good and virtuous lives and conversations, they do set good examples to all such as are under their care and authority, and likewise take care of and inspect the behaviour of all such as are under them, and punish all those who shall be guilty of any the offences aforesaid, as they will be answerable for the ill consequences of their neglect herein.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this twenty-first day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

Requiring all Persons, being in Office of Authority or Government at the Decease of the late King, to proceed in the Execution of their respective Offices.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Whitehall, July 10, 1837.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that, upon the decease of the Right Honourable Ann Baroness Crofton, of Mote, in the county of Roscommon, in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, the title and dignity of Baron Crofton devolved upon her grandson Edward now Baron Crofton, as eldest son of the late Sir Edward Crofton, Bart. (commonly called the Honourable Sir Edward Crofton, Bart.), who was, at the time of his death, heir presumptive to the said barony; and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brother and sisters of the said Edward Baron Crofton cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them in case their said late father had survived his said mother, and succeeded to the dignity of Baron Crofton; Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that William Crofton, Esq. a Lieutenant in the 85th Regiment, and his sisters, Susanna-Anne, wife of St. George-Francis Caulfield, of Dunamon-park, in the aforesaid county of Roscommon, Esq. Charlotte, wife of Gibbs-Crawford Antrobus, of Eaton-hall, in the county palatine of Chester, Esq. Frances, wife of Daniel Tighe, of Rosanna, in the county of Wicklow, Esq. Sophia-Crofton, Spinster, and Frederica, wife of Hu-

Hubert M'Laughlin, Clerk, Minister of the Protestant Chapel at Nice, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence as if their late father had succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Crofton :

And Her Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, July 10, 1837.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto William Frederick Lapidge, Esq. Captain in the Royal Navy, Her royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the cross of a Commander of the Royal Order of Isabella the Catholick, which Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain has been pleased to confer upon that Officer, in testimony of Her royal approbation of his services in the operations undertaken for raising the siege of Bilboa ; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed ; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms.

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Gentlemen at Arms, with their axes reversed.

Ycomen of the Guard, with their partizans reversed,

Upon the arrival of the Procession at the South Door of St. George's Chapel, the trumpets and drums and the Knight Marshal's Men filed off without the door.

At the entrance of the Chapel, the Royal Body was received by the Dean and Prebendaries, attended by the Choirs of Windsor and of the Chapel Royal (who fell in immediately before Norroy King of Arms), and the Procession moved down the South Aisle and up the Nave into the Choir, where the Royal Body was placed on a platform under a canopy of purple velvet, having thereon escocheons of the Royal Arms, and surmounted by an Imperial Crown, and the Crowns and Cushions were laid upon the Coffin.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex, Chief Mourner, sat on a Chair at the head of the Corpse, and the Supporters stood on each side.

His Royal Highness Prince George of Cambridge was seated near the Chief Mourner, as were also the Duke of Saxe Meiningen, the Prince of Leiningen, and the Prince Ernest of Hesse Philipsthal.

The Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household stood at the feet of the Corpse; and the Supporters and Assistant Supporters of the Pall and of the Canopy arranged themselves on each side of the Royal Body.

The Train Bearers and the Peers, Assistants to the Chief Mourner, arranged themselves behind His Royal Highness.

The Peers bearing the Banners were placed on each side near the Altar.

During the Service the Knights of the Garter present occupied their respective stalls, with the exception of the Duke of Somerset, one of the Supporters to the Chief Mourner, and those Knights of the Order who were Supporters of the Pall.

The Ministers of State and Nobility, not in attendtendance near the Royal Body, Bishops, Privy Councillors, Judges, and Law Officers, were placed in the vacant and intermediate stalls, and in the lower seats on each side of the Choir. The Grooms of the Bedchamber, Gentlemen Ushers of the Privy Chamber, Equerries, and others composing part of the Procession, were arranged on each side of the Altar. The Gentlemen at Arms took their station at the entrance, just without the Choir.

The part of the Service before the interment and the Anthem being performed, the Royal Body was deposited in the vault, and the Service being concluded, Sir William Woods, Clarenceux, Deputy to Garter Principal King of Arms, pronounced near the grave the styles of His late Most Sacred Majesty, of blessed memory, as follows :

“ THUS it hath pleased Almighty God to take out “ of this transitory life, unto His Divine Mercy,
 “ the late Most High, Most Mighty, and “ Most Excellent Monarch WILLIAM THE “ FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the “ United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ire-

“ Let us humbly beseech Almighty God to bless “ and preserve with long life, health, and “ honour, and all worldly happiness, the Most “ High, Most Mighty, and Most Excellent “ Princess, Our Sovereign Lady, VICTORIA, “ now, by the Grace of God, of the United “ Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland,

After

After which the Marquess Conyngham, Lord Chamberlain to His late Majesty, and the Duke of Argyll, His late Majesty's Lord Steward, and the other Officers of His late Majesty's Household, broke their Staves of Office, and, kneeling near the grave, deposited the same in the Royal Vault; whereupon their Royal Highnesses the Princes of the Blood Royal, the Foreign Princes, the Great Officers of State, Nobility, and others, who had composed the Procession, retired from the Chapel.

The Knights of the several Orders, present on the occasion, wore their respective Collars, with white rosettes. In pursuance of Her Majesty's Order, the Great Officers of State, Her Majesty's Ministers, and the Officers of the Royal Household, appeared in their State Uniforms, with black waistcoats, breeches, stockings, and buckles, uniform swords with crape, and black feathers in their hats. The Officers of the Army and Navy appeared in full dress Uniforms, with the mourning directed to be worn by them respectively at Court. The Bishops appeared in their Rochets, and with full lawn sleeves; the Peers, eldest Sons of Peers, Privy Councillors, and others, not included in the Royal Order, appeared in full dress black.

Within the Chapel, the Procession, from the south door down the south aisle, was lined by Men of the Foot Guards; and the centre of the Chapel, to the entrance of the choir, by dismounted Men of the Household Brigade, every fourth man bearing a flambeau.

The Bands were on the right of their respective Battalions. The Band of the Grenadier Guards commenced the Dead March in Saul on the Procession arriving at the right flank of that Regiment; the Band of the Scots Fusilier Guards took up the Dead March in Saul, on the Procession reaching its right flank; and, in like manner, the Band of the Coldstream Regiment of Foot Guards took it up, and continued it until the Body was met by the Clergy.
and

From four o'clock in the morning until nine in the evening, guns were fired at intervals of five minutes ; and from nine o'clock until the conclusion of the ceremony, minute guns were fired.

efficiency of the Established Church, and 'to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that out of the property of the see of Durham provision be forthwith made for the completion of those augmentations of poor benefices which the late bishop (meaning thereby the late Right Reverend William Van Mildert) had agreed to grant, but which he left uncompleted at the time of his death:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, duly prepared, and laid before His late Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, venues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect that part of the said Act which directs, that out of the property of the see of Durham, provision should be made, for the completion of those augmentations of poor benefices, which the late William Bishop of Durham had agreed to grant, but

but which he left uncompleted at the time of his death.

We humbly recommend and propose, that the several sums, which, in the schedule marked (A.), hereunto annexed (which schedule we recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), we have set opposite to the respective names of the perpetual curacies of Esh, St. Helen's Auckland, Etherley, Shildon, and Escomb. all in the diocese of Durham, and in the patronage of the Bishop of Durham, be forthwith paid by us, out of the moneys now standing to our credit and account at the Bank of England, to the several persons who were incumbents of the said curacies respectively on the twenty-first day of February now last past, as and for one whole year's payment, to the amount agreed to be granted, in each case respectively, by the said William late Bishop of Durham, from the twenty-first day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, the day of the death of the said Bishop, to the said twenty-first of February now last past.

And we further recommend and propose, that a fixed annual sum, to the same amount, in each case respectively, shall be paid by us, out of the moneys which shall be from time to time standing to our credit and account as aforesaid, to each of the incumbents for the time being, respectively, of the said several perpetual curacies, by equal half yearly payments, on the twenty-first day of February and the twenty-first day of August in each year, the first of such payments to be made on the twenty first day of August now next ensuing; and that whenever a vacancy in any of the said several perpetual curacies shall happen on any other day than the twenty-first day of February or the twenty-first day of August, the next half-yearly payment shall in every such case be apportioned, between the incumbent making the vacancy or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the perpetual curacy so becoming vacant, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And we further recommend and propose, that, in addition to the payment herein before recommended and proposed to be made to the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Etherley for the time being, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments purchased and set apart for the purpose by the said William late Bishop of Durham, and particularly described in the schedule marked (B.), hereunto annexed (which schedule we also recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), shall be permanently annexed to and become and be for ever part of the property and endowment of the said perpetual curacy of Etherley, and of the incumbent thereof, and his successors perpetual curates of Etherley for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing the augmentation of Trinity Chapel, in the parish of Stockton-upon-Tees, whenever the conditions required by the said William late Bishop of Durham shall have been complied with.

All of which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

St. James's-Palace, July 12, 1837.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, and Officers of the city of London, waited upon Her Majesty, when the Honourable Charles Ewan Law, the Recorder, made their compliments of congratulation and condolence in the following Address, which which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the city of London, most humbly approach your Majesty, for the purpose of giving expression to our feelings on occasion of the demise of our late Most Gracious Sovereign, and of the accession of your Majesty to the Throne.

Long and justly as the House of Brunswick has been endeared to the nation, we deem it a privilege to be permitted to sympathize in their afflictions; and we most sincerely condole with your Majesty, the Widowed Queen, and the Royal Family, under the bereavement by which an All-wise Providence has been pleased to remove from this transitory state a Sovereign who lived and reigned in the affections of His Family and people.

While with feelings of the deepest and most affectionate interest we contemplate your Majesty, thus early called to wield the sceptre of this mighty empire, we rejoice that your Majesty is no stranger to your people, nor to their institutions; "born and bred a Briton," your Majesty has been trained to admire and venerate our glorious constitution in Church and State, while your Majesty's former associations with those who are now your Majesty's liege subjects, must have convinced your Majesty of their devoted loyalty to your Majesty's Illustrious House, and their no less devoted attachment to the institutions of the country, both sacred and civil.

We pray your Majesty to be assured, that our supplications will ascend to that Gracious Being by whom "Kings reign and Princes decree justice;" that, "wisdom profitable to direct," may be imparted to your Majesty in the performance of the duties of your exalted station; that your Majesty's reign may be long

long and prosperous, that it may be eminently distinguished by a zealous defence on the part of your Majesty of that reformed Church of which your Majesty is, under God, the head ; and by the continuance to all classes and denominations of your Majesty's subjects of that protection in the exercise of the rights of conscience, which has so long and so happily prevailed in this highly favoured land ; and further that a wise, a just, and merciful administration, by your Majesty, of the laws may be met by affectionate and loyal obedience on the part of a free, a happy, and a grateful people.

Signed, by order of the court,
Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

“ I receive, with much satisfaction, this loyal and dutiful Address.

“ I partake in the sorrow which you feel for the loss the nation has sustained by the death of His late Majesty.

“ In the congratulation which you offer to Me upon My accession, you estimate justly My love for My people, and My reverence for the Constitution of My country.

“ I fervently join in the prayers which you offer up for the prosperity of My reign, and for the welfare of My subjects ; and you may securely rely upon My determination to maintain the Reformed Church, to protect the rights of conscience, and to administer the law in justice and in mercy.”

They were all very graciously received, and had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's hand.

St. James's-Palace, July 12, 1837.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the city of London, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was read by the Honourable Charles Ewan Law, the Recorder, and which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, approach your Majesty with feelings of the deepest grief and sympathy upon the occasion of the loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained, in the death of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, a Prince whose warm attachment to the liberties and privileges of a free and loyal people, and whose constant solicitude to improve the institutions of His country, and to advance the interests and happiness of all classes of His subjects, secured to him while living, and will attach to His memory for future ages, the respect the gratitude, and the affections of a great nation.

While we bow with resignation to the inscrutable dispensations of Providence, we acknowledge its mercy in prolonging the life of our late beloved Monarch to a period when your Majesty, under the maternal care of your illustrious Parent, became qualified to fill the Throne of this great empire.

We hail with heartfelt gratification your Majesty's auspicious Accession to the Throne, and have received with the liveliest satisfaction your Majesty's most gracious declaration and assurance, that it will be your Majesty's unceasing study to maintain the reformed religion as by law established, securing at the same time to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty; and that your Majesty will steadily protect the rights, and promote, to the utmost of your Majesty's power, the happiness and welfare of all classes of your subjects. And we earnestly pray, that your Majesty's life may be long spared to realize the just expectations of a free, loyal, and devoted people.

Signed, by order of the court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ It gives Me great pleasure to receive this loyal Address from the Common Council of My city of London.

“ The grief, which you express for the loss of His late Majesty, and the just tribute which you pay to His virtues, are alike in accordance with My opinions and congenial to My feelings.

“ I receive your congratulations with the most lively satisfaction, and you may rely upon My adherence to the declaration with which I commenced My reign, and upon My determination to maintain the Reformed Religion as by law established, and at the same time to secure to all the full enjoyment of religious liberty.

“ I trust that I may be permitted, by Divine Providence, to promote the happiness of all classes of My subjects, and to fulfil the expectations of My free and loyal people.”

They were all very graciously received, and had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's hand.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JULY 18,
1837.Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 17, 1837.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Gentlemen who attend Her Majesty's Levee next Wednesday, are not expected to be present at the Drawing-Room on the following day.

Buckingham-Palace, July 17, 1837.

THIS day Her Majesty proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived about two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, the Deputy Lord Great Chamberlain, the Earl Marshal, the Lord Steward of the Household, the Lord Viscount Melbourne, Clarenceux King of Arms, in the absence of Garter, and the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the imperial crown was borne by the Duke of Somerset, K. G. the sword of state by the Lord Viscount Melbourne, and the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, the Great

Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, Sir Augustus Clifford, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I HAVE been anxious to seize the first opportunity of meeting you, in order that I might repeat in person My cordial thanks for your condolence upon the death of His late Majesty, and for the expressions of attachment and affection with which you congratulated Me upon My accession to the Throne. I am desirous of renewing the assurance of My determination to maintain the Protestant Religion as established by law, to secure to all the free exercise of the rights of conscience, to protect the liberties, and to promote the welfare of all classes of the community.

I rejoice that in ascending the Throne I find the country in amity with all Foreign Powers; and while I faithfully perform the engagements of My Crown, and carefully watch over the interests of My subjects, it shall be the constant object of My solicitude to preserve the blessings of peace.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberal supplies which you have granted for the public service of the year, as well as for the provision which you have made to meet the payments usually chargeable upon the Civil List.

I will give directions that the public expenditure, in all its branches, be administered with the strictest economy.

My

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

In taking leave of this Parliament, I return you My thanks for the zeal and assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the public business of the country.

Although your labours have been unexpectedly interrupted by the melancholy event which has taken place, I trust that they will have the beneficial effect of advancing the progress of legislation in a new Parliament. I perceive with satisfaction that you have brought to maturity some useful measures, amongst which I regard with peculiar interest the amendment of the criminal code and the reduction of the number of capital punishments. I hail this mitigation of the severity of the law as an auspicious commencement of My reign.

I ascend the Throne under a deep sense of the responsibility which is imposed upon Me, but I am supported by the consciousness of My own right intentions, and by My dependence upon the protection of Almighty God. It will be My care to strengthen our institutions, civil and ecclesiastical, by discreet improvement, wherever improvement is required, and to do all in My power to compose and allay animosity and discord.

Acting upon these principles I shall, upon all occasions, look with confidence to the wisdom of Parliament and the affections of My people, which form the true support of the dignity of the Crown, and ensure the stability of the Constitution.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by Her Majesty's command, said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is Her Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thursday the tenth day of August next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the tenth day of August next.

eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent,

grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, duly prepared, and laid before His late Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for fixing the annual sums to be paid to us, out of the revenues of the larger sees, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics.

We humbly recommend and propose, in order to leave to the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and to the Bishops of London, Winchester, Bath and Wells, and Worcester, respectively, the average annual incomes specified in the said Act, as near as may be, that upon the first avoidance of the several sees named in the first column of the schedule hereunto annexed (which schedule we recommend and propose shall be considered and taken as part of this scheme), the archbishops and bishops succeeding to the said sees respectively, and their respective successors, shall pay, or cause to be paid, to our credit,

into the Bank of England, to an account, intituled "Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," by equal half-yearly payments, the fixed annual sums set opposite to the names of the said sees respectively in the second column of the said schedule, the first payment in each such case to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of the avoidance of the respective sees, whether the same shall happen by death, translation, or otherwise; and that whenever a vacancy of any of the said sees shall hereafter happen on any other day than the half-yearly day of payment so calculated as aforesaid, then, in each such case, the next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the Archbishop or Bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the Archbishop or Bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half-yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid by the respective parties accordingly: provided, nevertheless and we further recommend and propose, that if a vacancy of the see of Canterbury shall happen, before the mortgage debt due from the Archbishop of Canterbury, for money borrowed under the provisions of an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for repairing, altering, and improving Lambeth-palace, and the mansion-house at Addington, shall be fully paid off; or if a vacancy of the see of London shall happen, before the mortgage debt due from the Bishop of London, for money borrowed under the provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for rebuilding London-house, shall be fully paid off; then in either of the said cases, so long as the annual sums payable by virtue of the said respective Acts shall continue payable, the amount of those sums

respectively shall be deducted out of the sums which we hereby recommend and propose to be payable to us by the said archbishop and bishop respectively:

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing the payment of fixed annual sums out of the revenues of other sees, in order to provide for the augmentation of the smaller bishopricks, nor any other measure relating to the revenues of any of the sees herein-mentioned, or of the said other sees respectively, in conformity with the provisions of the said first recited Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

Wm. L. Bathurst,

St. James's-Palace, July 14, 1837.

THIS day His Grace the Duke of Wellington, and a Deputation from the University of Oxford, waited on Her Majesty, to present the following Address to Her Majesty, which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, respectfully approach your royal presence, with the expression of our sincere condolence on the heavy affliction sustained by your Majesty, in common with the whole British Empire, by the decease of our late beloved and lamented King ; at the same time humbly tendering our heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of your ancestors.

Bereaved of the paternal government of a Sovereign whose most anxious wish was the welfare of his people, we are cheered with the consideration that we have a well-founded assurance of the future prosperity of the nation, from the many virtues which adorn your Majesty's character.

With gratitude to the illustrious Princess, your Mother, we reflect, that, under the vigilant and enlightened superintendence of her Royal Highness, your Majesty has been assiduously trained to understand, and, in reliance on God's blessing, to fulfil, the duties of your high and most important office.

In that education it was highly provided that your Majesty, from your earliest years, should learn to know the people over whom you might be called by Divine Providence to reign. We thankfully remember, that we had the happiness of receiving our future

ture Queen in our University, and that your Majesty was then pleased to manifest an interest in the monuments which it contains of the learning and munificence of former ages. Our earnest desire, as we feel it to be our duty, will be to maintain and extend its renown as a seat of true religion and useful learning; and we humbly assure your Majesty, that we shall earnestly endeavour to deserve the continuance of that protection and favour, which our University has enjoyed through a succession of ages, from the reigning Sovereigns of the realm, by inculcating upon the minds of those entrusted to our care, a dutiful attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and thus preparing the rising generation to serve your Majesty in the several departments of Church and State.

Our most fervent prayers will be offered up to Almighty God, that every blessing, both spiritual and temporal, may be abundantly poured forth upon your Majesty and your Royal House—that our ecclesiastical and civil institutions, in which are involved the purity of our religious worship, the rightful supremacy of law, and the liberty and happiness of the subject, may find, under your Majesty's sway, that protection, the enjoyment of which has, for so long a period, endeared the House of Brunswick to the British Nation—that your Majesty's reign may be a conspicuous example of the stability of a Throne founded on the eternal principles of rectitude, and supported by the affection of grateful subjects—that it may be long and prosperous—and that, by the blessing of the same Almighty Being, your Majesty may reap the best earthly reward of your beneficent cares, in the loyalty and devotion of a religious; united, and happy people.

Given at our House of Convocation, under our common seal, this 28th day of June, in the year of our Lord, 1837.

To

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ The solemn declaration of your attachment to my Person and Government demands my warmest acknowledgments.

“ I thank you for the justice which you have rendered to the memory of the late King, and the well-founded gratitude which you feel and express towards my beloved Mother.

“ I recall, with lively satisfaction, to my recollection the visit which I formerly made to your famous University, the attention with which I was received, and the pleasure which I derived from the contemplation of its ancient and venerable monuments.

“ I entirely rely upon your zealous exertions for the promotion of religion and the extension of learning. I have no doubt that you are fully aware of the importance of the charge committed to your care, and that you will make it your study to instil religious principles and virtuous habits.

“ It will be my endeavour to secure our ecclesiastical and civil institutions, by the maintenance of their fundamental principles, and the adoption of well-considered improvements ; and I join fervently in your prayers to Almighty God for those blessed results which it will be the study of my life to attain.”

Mr. Romilly, Registrary of the University; Mr. Gunning, Senior, Beadell; Mr. Leapingwell, Beadell; and Mr. Hopkins, Beadell; waited upon Her Majesty to present to Her Majesty the following Address, which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, humbly approach your Royal presence, to offer our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this great Empire, and to tender to your Majesty the assurance of our devoted loyalty and attachment. We feel, however, that we should be wanting in our duty, did we not at the same time express our deep sorrow at the mournful event, by which this nation has been deprived of the paternal sway of your Majesty's Royal Predecessor. Were we to omit this testimony of our regret, we should fail, not only in manifesting that sympathy for which your Majesty has a claim upon all your loving subjects, but also in exhibiting that strongest proof of attachment to the Crown, which is afforded by the declaration of affectionate reverence for those who have worn it with equal honour to themselves, and advantage to their people.

The

The watchful care, and excellent judgment, with which your Majesty's illustrious Mother has uniformly fulfilled her parental duties, induce us to look forward to the future with the most sanguine hopes. In the natural wish to picture to ourselves the blessings which this nation may, under Divine Providence, expect to receive at your Majesty's hands, our minds spontaneously turn to the records of past times, and we call to memory its condition under the rule of former Sovereigns. Among those Sovereigns, no one is more conspicuous than that Queen, by whose prudent government this country rose to an unprecedented pitch of grandeur, and under whose protection the Protestant Religion became the established Religion of the Realm. Gladly then do we persuade ourselves that we are forming no vain anticipations, when we indulge the hope that we are at the dawn of a like illustrious reign; during which our country may still maintain its high pre-eminence among the nations; our religion still live in the hearts of the people; and our Queen obtain for herself, by a gracious regard for the welfare of her subjects, a bright and never-fading renown.

And as our University has ever flourished under the especial favour and patronage of the Rulers of this land (and under none more than that of the gracious Queen to whom allusion has been made), we shall ever feel ourselves bound not only by the ordinary obligations of duty, but also by the additional tie of gratitude, both to cherish in ourselves, and to instil into those who are committed to our care, the principles of loyalty and fidelity to the Throne.

In conclusion, We humbly beg leave to advert to a subject, in which our late lamented Sovereign was pleased to take an interest. His Majesty had expressed a most gracious wish that a copy of the authorised version of the Holy Scriptures should be printed by our University, with the design that it should occupy a permanent place in the Royal Library at Windsor. The recent mournful event, which we deplore, prevented our revered Sovereign from receiving at our hands this offering of our duty. Great therefore is our gratification at being permitted by your Majesty to avail ourselves of this occasion, to present in the most respectful manner which could be devised on our part, these sacred volumes to your Majesty; and we humbly hope that your Majesty will graciously allow them to be placed in the Royal Library for which they were originally destined.

And we have only further to add our earnest prayer, that the Great Author of our being, and of our faith, may ever bless and protect your Majesty.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

“ I return you my cordial thanks for this public testimony of your respect for the memory of my beloved Uncle, and of your affectionate attachment to my Person and Government.

“ The well deserved tribute which you pay to my beloved Mother is highly grateful to my feelings.

“ Your University owes much to the protection and encouragement of former Sovereigns.

“ I am actuated by an equal desire to promote its interests and to enlarge the sphere of its utility.

“ I entertain no doubt that you will labour to instil into the minds of those who are committed to your care the true principles of loyalty.

“ I accept, with much satisfaction, the authorised version of the Holy Scriptures. These sacred volumes will be the more prized by me for the sake of him in whose wishes they originated, and to whom they were intended to be presented. I will direct them to be placed in the Royal Library at Windsor, and I shall ever consider them as the most valuable part of that collection.”

St. James's-Palace, July 14, 1837.

THIS day the Lord Bishop of London, and the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, with a Deputation of the Clergy, waited upon Her Majesty, to present the following Address to Her Majesty, which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of London and Westminster, humbly request permission to approach your Majesty, with the expression of our heartfelt condolence upon the death of our late revered Sovereign, and with our sincere congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this realm.

While we deplore the loss of a Monarch, who on all occasions evinced a firm attachment to that Church, of which he was by the Constitution of this country the temporal head, it is impossible for us not to derive consolation and encouragement from reflecting, that he has been succeeded by a Princess, trained up under the watchful care of her Royal Mother in the principles of our Holy Religion, and accustomed to the observance of its duties.

We rely, under Divine Providence, upon your Majesty to support and protect the Church of this nation, as the appointed instrument of diffusing, amongst all classes of your Majesty's subjects, a knowledge of those truths and precepts, which are the only sure basis of individual happiness, and of national prosperity and peace ; and we beg leave, with all humility, to assure your Majesty, that we are deeply sensible of the obligation which rests upon us, as Ministers of that Church, to promote, by all the means in our power, the great ends of its institution, and to use our privileges and immunities for the purpose of advancing the highest interests of mankind.

It is our heartfelt wish, and will be the subject of our earnest prayers, that your Majesty may be guided by Divine wisdom, to seek in all things the Glory of God, and the good of His people; and that being protected by His power, and blessed with His grace and favour, your Majesty may long continue before Him, in health, and peace, and honour, and finally exchange an earthly for an immortal crown.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I am happy to receive this dutiful Address from so important and venerable a body of the Clergy of the Established Church.

“ Trained up in the principles of our Religion, I consider the Established Church of these realms an efficient instrument appointed for the holy purposes which you describe.

“ I entirely appreciate the high motives by which its members are actuated, and the great ends which they propose to themselves. In the discharge of their sacred duties, they may securely depend upon my protection and support.”

His Serene Highness was then, by command of the Sovereign, conducted into the Chapter-room between the Marquess of Lansdowne and the Duke of Somerset, the two junior Knights present, preceded by Deputy Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by Black Rod.

The Prince kneeling near the right hand of Her Majesty, and Deputy Garter, presenting on his knee the Garter, the Sovereign, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Sussex and Prince George of Cambridge, the two senior Knights present, buckled it on His Serene Highness's left leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual admonition.

Deputy Garter next presented, in like manner, the ribband with the George, and Her Majesty, assisted as before, put the same over the Prince's left shoulder, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition; after which His Serene Highness had again the honour to kiss the Sovereign's hand.

The Prince of Leiningen thereupon received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, and withdrew.

The

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JULY 20, 1837.

St. James's-Palace, July 19, 1837.

THIS day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, with a Deputation of the Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the city of London, waited upon Her Majesty to present to Her Majesty the following Address, which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne:

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the city of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the city of London, while deeply lamenting the loss the nation has so recently sustained by the demise of our late revered and beloved Sovereign King William the Fourth, a Monarch long endeared to his subjects by his services in early life in the Naval forces of his country, by his consistent and constitutional endeavours to improve its institutions, and diffuse the blessings of civil and religious liberty among all classes of his people, by his grace and condescension

to

to all who had the happiness to approach his Royal Person, and by his unbounded charity, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most fervent and heartfelt expressions of our loyalty and devotion to your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government.

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty may have read in the records of your ancestry, the pre-eminent loyalty and attachment which your Majesty's Corporation of the city of Dublin has uniformly displayed, under the most trying circumstances, to your revered and adored family; and allow us to assure your Majesty, that those sentiments of loyalty and attachment are, if possible, augmented to your Majesty, from the proud and gratifying declaration which you have made, that you would uphold the Established religion of the country.

When England has arisen to the highest state of glory under a female Monarch, and when we recollect that that Monarch finally established the religion which you have been graciously pleased to express your determination to uphold, we anticipate, with the most ardent expectations, that Almighty God may be pleased to prosper your Majesty in your exertions for the benefit of your people, and enable you to emulate and to surpass the glory of your renowned and great predecessor.

Whatever may be the result of passing events ; whatever may be the difficulties or the triumphs which your Majesty may have to meet during a reign which we pray to God may be long and prosperous, we beg to assure your Majesty, that you will always find in your loyal city of Dublin a sincere, a devoted, and a zealous body, ready to support, with any sacrifice, your Majesty's Crown and dignity, and the connexion between Great Britain and Ireland.

In testimony whereof we have caused the common seal of the said city to be hereunto affixed, this 11th day of July 1837.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JULY 25, 1837.

At the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of July 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Thomas Henry Lord Foley to be Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the county of Worcester, his Lordship this day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's-Palace, July 22, 1837.

THE following Addresses were this day presented to Her Majesty, which Her Majesty was most graciously pleased to receive upon the Throne:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the Commission of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, seize the earliest opportunity of expressing our sincere condolence on account of the loss which your Majesty

and the nation have suffered, by the death of our late lamented Sovereign, and our cordial congratulations on your Majesty's accession to the British Throne, which has been occupied by a long and illustrious line of your Royal Progenitors.

We cannot look back to the brief reign of your Majesty's immediate predecessor, without calling to mind the many eminent and honourable qualities which endeared him to his subjects, who, in the experience of his mild and equitable administration, looked up to him with confiding attachment. We have a melancholy gratification in reflecting on the strong and just testimonies which men, of every shade of opinion in matters of public policy, have borne to the candour, patience and vigilance with which he turned his attention to the multiplied and arduous duties which devolve on the Head of the Government of this great empire.

It is with deep interest that we recognize in your Majesty the only daughter of an illustrious Prince, who for many years occupied a high place in the hearts and hopes of the nation, and whose premature death, immediately before that of his venerable Father, George the Third, added to the gloom with which that mournful event affected the whole body of the people.

Rejoicing to observe in your Majesty the unequivocal traces of the magnanimous spirit which, both in peace and war, distinguished so many of your Royal Ancestors, we cherish the pleasing anticipation that, under the guidance of Heaven, it will be your Majesty's invariable aim to consult the happiness and improvement of the people, by upholding the cause of true religion in every part of the empire, and by exemplifying those Christian virtues which impart the brightest lustre to a Crown. It is highly gratifying to us to learn with what alacrity your Majesty in your first General Council engaged, under the solemn sanction of an oath, to maintain and preserve inviolably the settlement of the true Protestant religion, with the government, worship, discipline, rights, and privileges of the Church of Scotland, as established by law. Firmly relying, as we do, on the fulfilment of this constitutional pledge, and remembering, with gratitude to God, how long the protection of our liberties, both religious and civil, has been identified with the honour and interest of the family from which your Majesty is descended, we feel ourselves bound to inculcate on the people, of whom we have the oversight, their sacred obligation to yield unshaken loyalty to the youthful Princess now advanced to the Sovereignty, as the Minister of God to them for good, and above all, to cultivate that fear of the Lord, and that love of righteousness, which are the best safeguards of the stability of the Throne, and the prosperity and peace of the kingdom.

That the Almighty God, who is the Governor among the nations, and in whose hand it is to make great, may abundantly bless your Majesty with the treasures of His wisdom and grace; that He may establish your Throne in righteousness; that He may ever place the faithful of the land in your councils; that the power of the Most High may strengthen and encourage your heart amidst all the solitudes of your lofty station, and that after a long and glorious reign on earth you may be exalted, through the merits of the Redeemer, to a blessed immortality, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and most obedient subjects, the Ministers and Elders of this Commission of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment. M. Gardiner, Moderator.

To

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I receive with the most lively satisfaction this Address from the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

“ You may securely rely upon my observance of the oath by which I bound myself, upon my accession, to maintain inviolate your rights and privileges. I rely entirely upon your zeal and energy in the discharge of your sacred duties ; and I entertain a confident hope that, under your paternal care, religion and morality, which are the best safeguards of the stability of the Throne, and of the prosperity and peace of the kingdom, will be strengthened and increased in Scotland.”

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Presbyterian Denomination, in and about the cities of London and Westminster, humbly approach your Royal presence, to express our sincere condolence with your Majesty upon the demise of your Royal Uncle, our late revered and beloved Sovereign, together with our heartfelt congratulations upon the happy accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these realms.

We have ever felt devoutly thankful to the Divine Providence that, during several successive generations, these kingdoms have been placed by the Omnipotent Ruler, under the mild and beneficent sway of Princes of your Majesty's august family, by whom the liberties of the people have been enlarged and confirmed, the moral character of the nation has been exalted, and the power and prosperity, the wealth and happiness of the kingdom have been promoted be-beyond all example. And we are impelled by gratitude to acknowledge, in particular, the blessings enjoyed by the country during the reign of His late lamented Majesty, in the preservation of peace, the wise and timely reform of some of our national institutions, and the extension of religious liberty, by which the condition of your Majesty's Protestant Dissenting subjects especially has been greatly improved.

When we call to remembrance your Majesty's Royal descent ; when we reflect upon the character of the Prince, your Majesty's ever-to-be-lamented Father, whose virtues, public and private, endeared him to the British people, and to no portion of them more than the Protestant Dissenters ; when we consider that your Majesty's early years were nurtured by the enlightened and patriotic counsels, and the moral and religious instructions of your Illustrious Mother, whom we have been accustomed to regard as a pattern of conjugal and maternal excellence ; and when we bear in mind your Majesty's gracious language in your first speech before your Privy Council, which has diffused general satisfaction and joy amongst your subjects, we entertain the firm and cheering persuasion that your Majesty's reign will be just and beneficent, honourable to your Majesty, and glorious to your people.

We have seen, with deep affection and lively sympathy, your Majesty's pious declaration of reliance upon the Divine Providence for support and guidance, and we humbly join our supplications with those of your Majesty and of the whole kingdom, on your Majesty's behalf. May the Supreme Benefactor, the Father of Mercies, grant that on your head the Crown may flourish, and that during your auspicious reign, peace may be preserved with all nations, tranquillity may be enjoyed at home, and equal rights and liberties may knit the hearts of all your Majesty's subjects in love to your Majesty, and to one another. May the King of Kings take your Majesty under his Almighty protection, shield you from dangers, replenish you with all heavenly gifts and graces, and prolong your life and reign to a far distant period, and cause your happiness as a Queen to be constantly growing in the spontaneous loyalty, the cordial affection, and the generous confidence of all classes and denominations of your Majesty's subjects, until, in the course of the Divine Providence, and in fulfilment of the Divine Grace, your Majesty shall be translated from earthly to heavenly felicity and glory.

[Presented by a Deputation.]

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

" I thank you for your condolence upon the death of the late King, and for your congratulations upon my accession.

" I am much gratified by the feelings which you express towards former Sovereigns of my family, and more particularly towards His late Majesty.

" I am actuated by the same principles, and you may always rely upon receiving at my hands that protection which is so justly due to you."

To VICTORIA, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

May it please the Queen,

WE, thy dutiful and loyal subjects, Members of the religious Society of Friends commonly called Quak-

Quakers, and representing that body in Great Britain and Ireland, are anxious to take the earliest opportunity of thus expressing our cordial and faithful attachment to our Queen.

We sensibly feel the loss of our late beloved Monarch King William the Fourth. We look back upon his reign as a period of no common importance in the history of our country, marked as it has been by the extension of civil and religious liberty, by mercy and compassion to the guilty, and by the recognition of the rights of our enslaved fellow subjects. We rejoice in these features of his Government as evidences of the increasing sway of Christian principle in the legislation of our country.

Under feelings of thankfulness to Almighty God, we offer to thee, our Queen, on thy accession to the Throne of these realms, our sincere congratulations on the prevalence of peace abroad and tranquillity at home. May nothing be permitted to interrupt these blessings; and may the conviction more and more prevail, that war is alike antichristian and impolitic. Convinced as we are that the religion of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer, is the only foundation for the true happiness of man and the prosperity of a people, and that it is the surest bulwark to any government, our prayer to God is, that it may be the stability of thy Throne, and may influence all the deliberations of thy Council.

Be pleased, O Queen, to accept our earnest and heartfelt desire, that thou mayest seek for heavenly wisdom to enable thee to fulfil the arduous duties which, in the ordering of Divine Providence, thou art, thus early, called to perform. Mayest thou live in the fear of God, and may he incline thy heart to keep his law, and richly endow thee with the graces of his Holy Spirit; and at length, when the days of thy delegated trust on earth are ended, mayest thou, through the mercy of God in Christ Jesus, enter upon

upon an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away.

Signed by the members of a meeting appointed to represent the said religious Society in Great Britain and Ireland. London, the 12th day of the seventh month, 1837.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS King George the Third, by His royal Proclamation, bearing date the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and one, did, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, amongst other things, appoint and declare that, with the arms or ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, there should be borne on an escocheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Electoral bonnet, and that the standard of the said United Kingdom should be the same quarterings as were therein declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escocheon of pretence thereon therein before described; and that the arms or ensigns armorial aforesaid should be used thenceforth, as far as conveniently might be, on all occasions wherein His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial ought to be used: and whereas His said Majesty having, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, substituted to His ancient title of Elector of the Holy Roman Empire the title of King of Hanover, it was thought fit that an alteration should be made in His Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, and it was therefore, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, accordingly declared, by a Royal Proclamation, bearing date the eighth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, that instead of the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Electoral bonnet, as directed by His Majesty's Proclamation above mentioned, there should thenceforth be used and borne with the arms or ensigns armorial of His Majesty's said United Kingdom, on an escocheon of pretence, the arms of His Majesty's dominions in Germany ensigned with the Hanoverian royal crown, and that the standard of the said United Kingdom should be the same quarterings as by His Majesty's said Proclamation were declared to be the arms or ensigns armorial of the said United Kingdom, with the escocheon of pretence ensigned with the said Hanoverian crown instead of the Electoral bonnet: and whereas, upon the demise of His late Most Sacred Majesty, the German dominions of His late Majesty have passed from the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and devolved upon His Royal Highness Prince Ernest Augustus Duke of Cumberland, now King of Hanover, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to declare, that henceforth the shield or escocheon of pretence representing His late Majesty's dominions in Germany, and ensigned with the Hanoverian royal crown, shall be omitted, and the shield left to contain the arms or ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland only: but, nevertheless, it is Our will and pleasure, that all such gold, silver and copper moneys as on the day before the twenty-sixth day of this instant July were current and lawful moneys of Great Britain, and all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority, with the like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed deemed and taken to be current and lawful moneys of the said United Kingdom in Great Britain; and that all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as on the day before the twenty-sixth day of this instant July were lawful moneys of Ireland, and all such gold, silver, and copper moneys as shall on or after this day be coined by Our authority with like impressions, until Our will and pleasure shall be otherwise declared, shall be deemed and taken to be current and lawful moneys of the said United Kingdom in Ireland; and all such moneys as shall have been coined for and issued in any of the dominions of the said United Kingdom, and declared by Royal Proclamation to be current and lawful money of such dominions respectively, bearing His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any part or parts thereof, and all moneys which shall hereafter be coined and issued according to such Proclamations, shall continue to be lawful and current money of such dominions respectively, notwithstanding such change in Our arms or armorial bearings respectively as aforesaid, until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereupon; and all and every such moneys as aforesaid shall be received and taken in payment in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, and in the dominions thereunto belonging, after the date of this Proclamation, in such manner, and as of the like value and denomination, as the same were received and taken before the date hereof: and it is also Our will and pleasure that the several dies and marks which have been used to denote the stamp duties, and all other stamps and marks and instruments which, before the issuing of this Proclamation, shall be in actual use for any public purpose, and in which His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, or any parts or part thereof respectively, may be expressed, shall not by reason of this Proclamation, or any thing therein contained, be changed or altered until the same may be conveniently so changed or altered, or until Our pleasure shall be further declared thereon; but that all such dies, stamps, marks, and instruments, respectively bearing His late Majesty's arms or ensigns armorial, used before this twenty-sixth day of July instant, or any parts or part of such arms or ensigns armorial, shall have the like force and effect as the same had before the said twenty-sixth day of July instant.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, this twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 4, 1837.

Buckingham-Palace, July 31, 1837.

THIS day a Deputation of the Dutch and French Churches in the city of London, waited on Her Majesty, to present the following Address, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble and dutiful Address of the Protestant Dutch and French Churches in the city of London, established by King Edward the Sixth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Ministers, Elders, and Deacons of the Pro-

Protestant Dutch and French Churches, in the city of London, established by Royal Charter in the year 1550, by King Edward the Sixth, of glorious memory, most humbly beg to approach your Royal presence, to express our deep and sincere sympathy with your Majesty, for the grievous loss which your Majesty has, in common with the nation, sustained by the decease of our late beloved and lamented King, William the Fourth, whose manifold virtues and paternal reign have secured to his memory the lasting gratitude of the people of these realms.

But, while we condole with your Majesty on the demise of our late much revered Sovereign, we humbly beg to offer our heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's accession to the Throne of this mighty empire, and most unfeignedly to assure your Majesty that we cordially participate in that strong and universal feeling of dutiful and affectionate attachment to your Royal Person, which so eminently prevails among all your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects.

We further beg to assure your Majesty, that we shall continue to offer up our most fervent prayers to the Almighty King of Kings, that His protection and blessings may, in the richest measure, be granted to your Majesty and your Royal House, and that your Majesty's reign may be a long and uninterrupted series of peace and prosperity, and an abundant source of welfare and happiness, both spiritual and temporal, to this great and enlightened nation.

We most humbly beg leave to solicit the continuance of that great and powerful protection which our Churches, the most ancient foreign Protestant Churches in the United Kingdom, have enjoyed for a period of nearly three centuries, during the successive reigns of your Majesty's illustrious predecessors.

Done in Vestry, this 19th day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1837.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address, for the sorrow which you express for the loss of His late Majesty, and for your congratulations upon my accession.

“ I look back with great satisfaction to the protection which you have found during so long a period in this country, and you may entirely rely upon the continuance of that protection under my reign.”

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the

twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells respectively five thousand pounds; and that out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments should be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry

Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty, under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be

ap-

approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette :

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled
 “ An Act for carrying into effect the reports
 “ of the Commissioners appointed to con“ sider the state of the Established Church in “ England and Wales, with reference to ecclesias“ tical duties and revenues, so far as they relate
 “ to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage,” have, in pursuance of the said Act prepared, and now humbly

humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for fixing the annual sum to be paid by us for the augmentation of the income of the bishoprick of Lichfield.

We humbly recommend and propose, that in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Lichfield to the sum of four thousand five hundred pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the Right Reverend Samuel now Bishop of Lichfield, and his successors, bishops of Lichfield for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of eight hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the thirteenth day of February, and the thirteenth day of August in every year; and that the first of such payments, to the thirteenth day of February last, shall be made forthwith, and that the next of such payments shall be made on the thirteenth day of August next; and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Lichfield shall happen, on any other day than the thirteenth day of February, or the thirteenth day of August, the next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half-yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy, inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are here-

hereafter to be made towards such purposes ; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees ; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof ; we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December respectively, it shall appear to us that there will in the current half year be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve that a deduction be made from the sum payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Lichfield for the time being, and from the sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees, who by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid, during such half year ; and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and every such other scheme as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively ; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned ; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the

purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the said bishopric of Lichfield, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of

“ the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal :

as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before His late Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, relative to the Castle of Durham.

We humbly recommend and propose, that the Right Reverend Edward now Bishop of Durham, and his successors bishops of Durham, for the time being, shall hold the Castle of Durham, including all the precincts of the said castle, and all houses, buildings, lands, tenements, and hereditaments heretofore known or accepted as parcel of the said precincts, and all rights, privileges, ways easements, and advantages thereto belonging, in trust, for the University of Durham, which has lately been incorporated, by the name and stile of the Warden, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham; but subject; nevertheless, to such right of access as the clergy of the diocese of Durham now have to the library founded by John Cosin, heretofore Bishop of Durham, and now remaining within the said precincts, and to all right of way and other easements to which the same premises have heretofore been legally subject while in the possession of bishops of Durham; and also subject to the enjoyment by all such officers of the see or diocese of Durham, and by all such officers of the palatinate of Durham as have performed, for thirty years now last past, and now do perform, the duties of their respective offices in any building within the said precincts, of the right of performing their respective duties within the same buildings respectively, and to the enjoyment by the bedesmen of the cathedral church of Durham, of the almshouses wherein they now reside, until the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars shall have provided, to the satisfaction of the Bishop of Durham for the time being, sufficient buildings elsewhere for the respective purposes for which the present buildings are lawfully used; and as to those parts of the said buildings which were used by officers of the said palatinate, so long as any of those duties shall remain to be performed by the officers who held their offices at the time of passing the Act for separating the palatine jurisdiction from the bishopric of Durham.

And whereas the Bishop of Durham for the time being is Visitor of the said University of Durham, we further recommend and propose, that, for the accommodation of the said Bishop of Durham for the time being, all those apartments in that part of the said Castle of Durham, commonly called the Palace, which have usually been known by the name of the Senior Judge's apartments, together with a room in the lower story of the said castle, heretofore used as the still room, with two closets above, and together also with a double coach-house, and two stables, each containing three stalls, such coach-house house and stables being within the said precincts, near to the said library of Bishop Cosin, shall be reserved for the use of such Bishop; which apartments, coach-house, and stables, shall at all times be ready for the use of the said Bishop for the time being, on his giving three days notice to the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars of his wish to occupy the same: provided, that if the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars shall erect on the spot, and according to the plan approved by William late Bishop of Durham, a coach house and stable or stables for the accommodation of two carriages and six horses, and shall at all times keep the same ready for the use of the said bishop for the time being, on receiving such notice as aforesaid, such last-mentioned coach-house and stable or stables shall be substituted for the coach house and stables herein-before described, to the use of which such bishop shall, in that case, be no longer entitled.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said Warden, Masters, and Scholars shall duly maintain and repair all parts within the said precincts, and shall fully indemnify the said Bishop and his successors against all expences of such reparation and all claims for dilapidations.

All of which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Durham.

Foreign-Office, August 8, 1837.

A DISPATCH, dated the 15th of July 1837, has been received by the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, G. C. B. Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from George Villiers, Esq. Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Madrid, transmitting a note from the Spanish Government, of which the following is a translation, suspending the Royal Order of July 13, 1830, which imposed exceptional duties upon vessels proceeding from Gibraltar:

(Translation.)

SIR,

I HAVE the satisfaction to acquaint you, that, according to a communication made to me by the Minister of Finance on the 13th instant, the august Queen Regent having been informed of the report drawn up, in consequence of the representation which you made in your notes of the 1st of January and 20th of April of this year, for the abolition of the exceptional duties which are imposed upon goods coming from Gibraltar, and conveyed in Spanish vessels; and Her Majesty, bearing also in mind, on the one hand, the motives of public utility which dictated the Royal Order of July 13, 1830, and the political considerations which determined the issuing of the Royal Decree of December 2, 1834, and consider-

sidering, on the other hand, the generous and most important services which the British Government has afforded, and is still affording, to the national cause in the present contest, has been pleased to resolve, in conformity with the opinion of the Council of Ministers, that for the present, and without prejudice to what the Cortes may determine upon the system of customs and tariff, the observance of the 4th article of the said Royal Order of July 1830 be suspended, with respect to vessels proceeding from Gibraltar, in the same terms in which, by the Royal Decree of December 2, 1834, it was suspended as regards vessels proceeding from Bordeaux, Bayonne, Marseilles, and other intermediate ports of France, in order that by this means the Treaties may be fulfilled which exist with England, who has the right, according to them, to be treated in Spain as the most favoured nations.

I avail myself, &c.

A DISPATCH, dated the 29th of July 1837, has been received by the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, G. C. B. Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from George Villiers, Esq. Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Madrid, transmitting a note from the Spanish Government, of which the following is a translation, respecting the admission into certain Spanish ports of foreign coal, for the use of foreign steam boats :

(Translation.)

SIR,

THE Minister of Finance has just made me the following communication :

“ I have laid before the Queen Regent the information lately obtained in consequence of the reiterated representations of the British Minister at this Court, and of the French Chargé d’ Affaires, requesting the revocation of the Royal Order of the 9th of April last, which modified that of the 31st January of the preceding year, respecting the admission of foreign coal ; and Her Majesty, desirous, on the one hand, that no difficulties be placed in the way of the navigation of steam vessels, whether national or foreign, but, on the contrary, that every facility compatible with the protection and encouragement which our own mines require be afforded ; and, on the other hand, of giving another proof to our faithful allies that the Spanish Government, naturally grateful, is not unaware of the important services which, in support of the national cause, are afforded by the vessels charged to guard our coasts ; Her Majesty has been pleased to resolve, that, although the 3d article of the above-mentioned Royal Order of the 9th of April last, declares duty free the foreign coal, which, without being landed in our ports, is kept on board and consumed by the steamers, they shall, for the present, be allowed to have two deposits in the Mediterranean, which are to be Barcelona and Alicante, and two others on the sea coast, Cadiz and Corunna, upon the payment of two per cent. and the Officers of the Customs to have a key ; for this article, without ceasing to be in the free air, can be placed in buildings which the Masters of the steamers can provide themselves, and thus they will have a deposit corresponding to their con-

consumption. All this to take place without detriment to the ameliorations which the General Direction and its 'Junta Consultiva' have proposed, in order that they may be submitted to the Cortes for examination and discussion, to whom also immediate communication will be made of this provisional measure which circumstances have obliged the dictation of.

" I have the honour to make the above communication to you, in reply to the note which you were pleased to address to me upon this subject, and avail myself, &c."

A DISPATCH, dated the 2d June 1837, has been received by the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, G.C.B. Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from the Honourable Charles Ashburnham, Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Mexico, transmitting a Proclamation of the Mexican Government, of which the following is a translation :

PROCLAMATION.

The President of the Mexican Republic to the Inhabitants thereof ; know, that the 68th article of the general tariff of the maritime and frontier custom-houses, declaring that the said tariff should not begin to take its full effect until six months after its publication in this capital, was dictated for the benefit of commerce, with the important object of regulating 1837. 3 T that

that of all nations upon a footing of perfect equality; and consequently, provided that this just principle be observed, all those regulations of the said tariff which are notoriously favourable to commerce in general, as stimulating speculation, and as destructive of fraudulent traffick, as pernicious to the public good as to commerce itself, may immediately come into operation, and be observed; and, in order that commerce may, as soon as possible, enjoy the aforesaid advantages, I have thought fit to Decree as follows:

Art. 1. From the date of the publication of this Decree, in every port or place where there are maritime or frontier custom-houses, those articles of the general tariff of the 11th March last, which hereinafter shall be enumerated, shall begin to be observed, maritime custom-houses being bound to observe all, and those of the frontier such as apply to them.

Art. 2. The articles of the new tariff which shall immediately come into operation, at the aforesaid custom-houses, according to the terms of the foregoing article, are the following:

First. The second article, which lowers the amount of tonnage duties.

Second. The 3d and 4th articles, which accords to ships after taking on board their cargoes, to proceed to another port with the view to ship produce of the country which is exempt from duty, and which (articles) prescribe the formalities under which this concession is to be made use of.

Third. The 20th and 21st articles relative to the cessation, in ordinary cases, of the custom of placing a permanent guard of tidesmen (celadores) on board: relative to the guards keeping watch, by rounds, at a distance, and to its being the duty of the officer commanding the tidesmen, or of the Custom-house officers, to seal up the hatchways and bulk-heads of the vessel.

Fourth.

Fourth. The 23d article, which imposes penalties upon any person who fraudently may break the seals ; but this article shall be expressly and formally notified to the master of the ship by the officer commanding the tidesmen, or the Custom-house officer, on his coming on board to take the manifests.

Fifth. The 44th article, relative to the regulations to be observed with regard to applications for passing the cargo.

Sixth. The 45th article, which names the Custom-house functionaries, whose duty it is to attend at the passing of the goods.

Seventh. The 56th article, by which it is provided that Mexican Consuls and Vice-Consuls shall forward to the Custom-house statements of prices current, which shall be made use of in the way pointed out in the 57th article, when the tariff comes into force in all its parts.

Eighth. The 66th article, which regulates the examination of goods in the Custom-houses.

Ninth. The 91st article, which imposes penalties on masters of ships, or supercargoes, in every case of making trans-shipment of goods to another vessel, or permitting it on board their own ; but this article shall be expressly and formally notified to the captains, or supercargoes, by the officer commanding the tidesmen upon their coming on board.

Tenth. The 92d article, which fixes the legal hours for shipping or unshipping cargoes ; but the notification, as prescribed in the foregoing paragraph, shall be previously made.

Eleventh. The 93d, 94th, and 95th articles, relating to the penalties denounced against Custom-house officers, and other public functionaries, for aiding or concealing smuggling ; and authorising the informers to be present at the examination of goods seized in consequence of their information.

Twelfth. All the articles of the 7th chapter, relative to the distribution of confiscations, except as to pecuniary and personal penalties, inasmuch as, until the 17th day of September inclusive, of this year, those imposed by the laws in force previously to the 11th of March last, shall continue in full effect.

Article . The remaining articles of the new tariff, not expressly declared by this Decree to be in force from the time of its publication in the respective places, shall not commence taking effect until from the 18th day, inclusive, of September of this year, the general tariff of 16th November 1827, the law of 31st March 1831, and the other existing regulations remaining in the mean time in force and vigour, in all such matters as are not altered or modified by those articles of the new tariff as are enumerated in the present Decree.

I accordingly command that it be printed, published, circulated, and duly observed.

Palace of the National Government, Mexico, 2d May 1837.

LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 18, 1837.

At the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of July 1837,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the

efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds; and that, out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds :

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, should be inserted and published in the London Gazette.

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled “An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage,” have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for fixing the annual sum to be paid by us for the augmentation of the income of the Bishoprick of Chichester.

We humbly recommend and propose, that in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Chichester, to the sum of four thousand two hundred pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the Right Reverend William now Bishop of Chichester, and his successors bishops of Chichester, for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of six hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the fifth day of April, and the fifth day of October in every year; and that the first of such payments to the fifth day of April last, shall be made forthwith, and that the next of such payments shall be made on the fifth day of October next; and that whenever a vacancy of the see of Chichester shall happen on any other day than the fifth day of April, or the fifth day of October, the then next half-yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half-yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes, and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may, therefore, happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof, we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December respectively, it shall appear to us that there will, in the current half year, be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve that a deduction be made from the sum payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Chichester for the time being, and from the sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees who, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid, during such half year; and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and every such other

other scheme as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively ; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified, by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment, after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned ; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year until the whole sums deducted shall be paid ; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measure relating to the said bishopric of Chichester, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council ; is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the

the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and

the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under his royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal.

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme prepared under the authority of the said Act should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order, should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things there-therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and which is in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled " An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect further part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the bishopricks of Salisbury, Gloucester and Bristol, Bath and Wells, and Worcester.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the whole of the deaneries of Cricklade and Malmesbury, in the county of Wilts, and now forming part of the diocese of Salisbury, and of the archdeaconry of Wilts, shall be detached and dis severed from the said diocese and archdeaconry, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and of the archdeaconry of Bristol; and that all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits of the said deanries respectively, and the rural deans of the said deanries, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects, within the same limits, shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of Edward now Bishop of Salisbury, and every future Bishop of Salisbury, and of the present and every future Archdeacon of Wilts, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and of his successors Bishops of Gloucester and Bristol for ever, and of the Archdeacon of Bristol for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that the deanry of Pottern, now in the said diocese of Salisbury, and in the archdeaconry of Salisbury, shall be detached and dis severed from the said archdeaconry, and shall be annexed and united to, and form part of, the said archdeaconry of Wilts; and that the rural dean of the said deanry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, and the whole clergy and others within the same, shall be released from the jurisdiction of the present and every future Archdeacon of Salisbury, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Archdeacon of Wilts for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert James Bishop of Worcester, in testimony whereof he has also signed and sealed this scheme, and, with the like consent of the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, testified as aforesaid, that the whole parish of Shenington, in the county of Gloucester, but locally situate between the counties of War-

Warwick and Oxford, and now forming part of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and of the archdeaconry of Gloucester and deanry of Campden, shall be detached from the said last-mentioned diocese, archdeaconry, and deanry, and shall form part of the said diocese of Worcester, and be included in the archdeaconry of Worcester, and within the deanry of Kington, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop and the Archdeacon of Worcester for the time being; and that the whole parish of Iccomb, in the county of Worcester, but insulated in the said county of Gloucester, and now forming part of the diocese and archdeaconry of Worcester, and of the deanry of Blockley, shall be detached from the said last-mentioned diocese, archdeaconry, and deanry, and shall form part of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and be included in the archdeaconry of Gloucester, and within the deanry of Stowe; and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol and the Archdeacon of Gloucester for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that the parish of Bedminster, now in the diocese of Bath and Wells, and in the archdeaconry of Bath, and deanry of Redcliffe and Bedminster, shall, on the first vacancy of the see of Bath and Wells, be detached and dissevered from the said diocese, archdeaconry, and deanry, and shall form part of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and be included in the archdeaconry and deanry of Bristol, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol and the Archdeacon of Bristol for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said bishopricks of Salisbury, Gloucester and Bristol, and Worcester, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this thirteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the several dioceses of Salisbury, Gloucester and Bristol, Bath and Wells, and Worcester.

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal :

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect ; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, should be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette :

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly

duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the sees and dioceses of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Richard Bishop of Oxford, and the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that the whole parish of Widford, now in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and in the archdeaconry of Gloucester, but insulated in the county of Oxford, shall be detached from the said diocese and archdeaconry, and shall be included in the diocese and archdeaconry of Oxford, and within the deanery of Witney; and that the church and clergy and others, within the said parish, shall be released from the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol and the Archdeacon of Gloucester, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop and the Archdeacon of Oxford for the time being respectively.

And whereas by an Order issued by His late Majesty in Council, on the fifth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, which has since been duly registered and gazetted, it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed, with the consent of the said Richard then and now Bishop of Oxford, that the whole county of Berks, and those parts of the county of Wilts which are insulated therein, forming together the archdeaconry of Berks, and then forming part of the diocese of Salisbury, should be included in, and form part of, the diocese of Oxford; we now humbly recommend and propose, that out of such moneys as shall, from time to time, be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds shall be paid by us to the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, during his incumbency of the said see, by equal half-yearly payments, on the tenth day of April and the tenth day of October in every year, and that the first of such payments, to the tenth day of April now last past, shall be made forthwith, and the next of such payments shall be made on the tenth day of October next; and that if a vacancy in the said see of Oxford shall happen on any other day than the tenth day of April, or the tenth day of October, the said bishop, or his representatives, shall receive such proportion only of the then current half-yearly payment as shall have become due from the next preceding tenth day of April, or tenth day of October, as the case may be, to the day of such vacancy.

And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln, in testimony whereof he has also signed and sealed this scheme, that upon the first avoidance of the said see of Oxford, or, before such avoidance, with with the consent of the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, duly testified to us under his hand and seal, the whole county of Buckingham, now forming the archdeaconry of Buckingham, and part of the said diocese of Lincoln, shall be absolutely detached and dis severed from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the said diocese of Oxford; and that the said archdeaconry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be thenceforth exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said see of Lincoln, and of the said present and every future bishop thereof, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Bishop of Oxford for the time being.

And we further recommend and propose, that; from and after the next avoidance of the said see of Oxford, in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Oxford for the time being to the sum of five thousand pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us, out of the same moneys, to the bishop then succeeding to the said see, and his successors, bishops of Oxford for the time being, the fixed annual sum of three thousand five hundred pounds, by equal half yearly payments, the first of such payments to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of such avoidance; and that whenever thereafter a vacancy in the said see of Oxford shall happen on any other day than the half-yearly day of payment so calculated as aforesaid, the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive ; and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys, from time to time, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees, upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes ; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees ; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof : we further recommend and propose, that if, at the commencement of any half year calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December, respectively, it shall appear to us, that there will, in the current half year, be a deficiency in the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve, that a deduction be made from the sums payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Oxford for the time being, and to the bishops of other smaller sees, who by virtue of any other scheme prepared, or to be prepared, by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid during such half year ; and to calculate such deductions in proportion to the sums which have been, or may be, named in this or such other scheme, as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively, but which, in respect of the see of Oxford, shall, during the incumbency of the said Richard Bishop of Oxford, be taken to be two thousand two hundred and fifty pounds ;

pounds; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified, by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim except as herein after mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us, in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes, within the same half year, we shall be authorised and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that after the said archdeaconry of Buckingham shall so as aforesaid become part of the said diocese of Oxford, the right of appointing the archdeacon of Buckingham shall be vested in the Bishop of Oxford, and his successors bishops of Oxford for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the bishoprics of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol respectively, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven,

And

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the several registrars of the several dioceses of Lincoln, Oxford, and Gloucester and Bristol.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral

and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices ; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six ; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law ; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishopricks, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave, as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells,

Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds ; and that out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments should be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds :

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty, under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal :

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the therein-before recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon fur-

further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for fixing the annual sum to be paid by us for the augmentation of the income of the bishoprick of Hereford.

We humbly recommend and propose, that in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Hereford for the time being, to the sum of four thousand two hundred pounds; as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the bishop next succeeding to the see of Hereford, which is now vacant, and his successors, bishops of Hereford, for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of one thousand four hundred pounds, by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of March and the first day of September in every year; the first of such payments to be made on the first day of March next; and that whenever hereafter a vacancy in the said see of Hereford shall happen on any other day than one of the said half yearly days of payment,

the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy, inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may, for a time, exceed the amount thereof; we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year, calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December, respectively, it shall appear to us that there will in the current half year be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve, that a deduction be made from the sum payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Hereford for the time being, and from the sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees, who, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid, during the same half year, within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid, during such half year, and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and every such other scheme, as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified by us, or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead, and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said bishopric of Hereford, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her
Ma-

Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

C. C. Greville.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the

the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to his said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following, recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the diocese of Peterborough should be increased by the county of Leicester, now in the diocese of Lincoln; and that the diocese of Lincoln should consist of the counties of Lincoln and Nottingham; and that the latter county, now in the diocese and province of York, should be included in the province of Canterbury; and that in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave as an average annual income, to the Archbishop of Canterbury bury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds ; and that, out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments should be made by the Commissioners, in such instances and to such amount as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds ; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the next avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop ; and that all the arch-deaconries of England and Wales should be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate :

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, should be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be

be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal 1837. 4 G “ clo-

“ dioceses, revenues, and patronage,” have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect part of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the sees and dioceses of York, Lincoln, and Peterborough.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that, upon the first avoidance of the said see of Peterborough, the whole county of Leicester, now forming the archdeaconry of Leicester, and part of the said diocese of Lincoln, shall be absolutely detached and dis severed from the same diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the said diocese of Peterborough; and that the said archdeaconry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be thenceforth exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Bishop of Lincoln, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Bishop of Peterborough for the time being; and that the right of appointing the Archdeacon of Leicester shall thereupon be vested in the Bishop of Peterborough, and his successors Bishops of Peterborough for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that, from and after such avoidance of the said see of Peterborough, in order to raise the average annual income of the Bishop of Peterborough for the time being to the sum of four thousand five hundred pounds, as near as may be, there shall be paid by us to the bishop then succeeding to the said see of Peterborough, and his successors bishops of Peterborough for the time being, out of such moneys as shall, from time to time, be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of one thousand one hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half yearly payments, the first of such payments to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of such avoidance ; and that whenever thereafter a vacancy in the said see of Peterborough shall happen on any other day than the half yearly day of payment, so calculated as aforesaid, the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive ; and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

And whereas the amount of the moneys, from time to time, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees, from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes ; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees, and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof ; we further recommend and propose, that, if at the commencement of any half year, calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December, respectively, it shall appear to us, that there will in the current half year be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and

payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve that a deduction be made from the sum payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Peterborough for the time being, and from the sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees, who, by virtue of any other scheme prepared, or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid during such half year; and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been, or may be, named in this or such other scheme, as the future annual average income of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified by us, or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid; nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorised and bound to divide the surplus, rateably, among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead; and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Archbishop of Canterbury and Ed-

Edward Archbishop of York, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, and with the like consent of the said John Bishop of Lincoln, testified as aforesaid, that at the time of such avoidance as aforesaid the whole county of Nottingham, now forming the archdeaconry of Nottingham, and part of the province and diocese of York, shall be detached and dissevered from the said last-mentioned province and diocese, and shall be annexed and united to, and included in, and form part of, the province of Canterbury, and of the said diocese of Lincoln; and that the said archdeaconry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be thenceforth exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Archbishop of York, and shall be under and subject to the metropolitan jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the episcopal jurisdiction of the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being, respectively; and that the right of appointing the Archdeacon of Nottingham shall thereupon be vested in the Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors, Bishops of Lincoln, for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said sees and dioceses of York, Lincoln, and Peterborough, respectively, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of August 1837.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His said late Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein re-

respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His said late Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst other things, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that, in order to provide for the augmentation of the incomes of the smaller bishoprics, such fixed annual sums should be paid to the Commissioners, out of the revenues of the larger sees respectively, as should, upon due inquiry and consideration, be determined on, so as to leave as an average annual income to the Archbishop of Canterbury fifteen thousand pounds, to the Archbishop of York ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Lon-

London ten thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Durham eight thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Winchester seven thousand pounds, to the Bishop of Ely five thousand five hundred pounds, to the Bishop of Saint Asaph and Bangor five thousand two hundred pounds, and to the Bishops of Worcester, and Bath and Wells, respectively, five thousand pounds ; and that, out of the fund thus accruing, fixed annual payments should be made by the Commissioners in such instances and to such amounts as should be in like manner determined on, so that the average annual incomes of the other bishops respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds :

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty, under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of " the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal :

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the therein-before recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette :

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, 1837. 4 H grant,

grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for " carrying into effect the reports of the Commis" sioners appointed to consider the state of the " Established Church in England and Wales, with " reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues,
 " so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues,
 " and patronage," have, in pursuance of the said Act, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for fixing the annual sums to be paid by us in augmentation of the incomes of the bishopricks of Carlisle and Chester.

We humbly recommend and propose, in order to raise the average annual income of the bishop of each of the sees of Carlisle and Chester to the sum of four thousand five hundred pounds; as near as may be, respectively, that, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively, towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, there shall be paid by us, upon the next avoidance of the said sees respectively, whether the same shall happen by death, translation, or otherwise, to the bishop next succeeding to the said see of Carlisle, and his successors, the fixed annual sum of two thousand pounds, and to the bishop next succeeding to the said see of Chester, and his successors, the fixed annual sum of one thousand four hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half yearly payments in every year, the first of such payments to be made at the end of six calendar months from the day of such avoidance in each case respectively ; and that whenever, after the commencement of such payments respectively, a vacancy of either of the said sees shall happen on any other day than the half yearly day of payment, so calculated as aforesaid, then in each such case the next half yearly payment shall be apportioned between the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the see, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last half yearly day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly :

And we further recommend and propose, that if a vacancy of the said see of Carlisle shall happen before the mortgage debt due from the Bishop of Carlisle, for money borrowed under the provisions of an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for repairing and improving Rose Castle, in the county of Cumberland, belonging to the said see of Carlisle, shall be fully paid off, then, so long as the annual sums payable by virtue of the said last recited Act shall continue payable, the amount of such sums shall be also paid by us to the Bishop of Carlisle for the time being, out of the same moneys as aforesaid, and by like half yearly payments, in addition to the fixed annual sum herein specified.

upon vacancies occurring therein respectively, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demand upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof, we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year, calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December, respectively, it shall appear to us, that there will in the current half year be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve, that a deduction be made from the sums payable in the same half year to each bishop of the sees herein-named and to each of the bishops of other smaller sees who, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council for ratifying the same, shall then be entitled to payments in augmentation of their respective incomes, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid during such half year; and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums herein named, and to the sums which may in each such other scheme as aforesaid be named as the amount of the future average annual income of each see respectively; and that, upon the amount of every such deduction being certified, by us or by our secretary, to the bishop to be affected thereby, within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, the said bishop shall have no present claim to any greater sum than the residue of his half yearly payment, after such de-deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter-mentioned, that is to say; that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year, applicable to the purposes aforesaid, shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorized and bound to divide the surplus rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been made, or the representatives of such of them as shall be dead; and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid, before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to either of the said bishopricks of Carlisle and Chester, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act.

All of which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when the same shall have been registered as hereinafter directed, and shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that

this Order be forthwith registered by the several Registrars of the several dioceses of Carlisle and Chester.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of NOVEMBER 21, 1837.Buckingham-Palace, November 20, 1837.

THIS day Her Majesty proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived about two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, the Deputy Lord Great Chamberlain, the Earl Marshal, the Lord Steward of the Household, the Lord Viscount Melbourne, Richmond Herald, in the absence of Garter, and the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the imperial crown was borne by the Duke of Somerset, K. G. the sword of state by the Lord Viscount Melbourne, and the cap of maintenance by the Earl of Shaftesbury, in the absence of the Marquess of Winchester.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, Sir Augustus Clifford, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither according-cordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to make and subscribe the declaration against transubstantiation, pursuant to the Bill of Rights, and afterwards to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I HAVE thought it right to assemble you for the transaction of public business at the earliest convenient period after the dissolution of the late Parliament.

It is with great satisfaction that I have received from all Foreign Powers the strongest assurances of their friendly disposition, and of their earnest desire to cultivate and maintain with Me the relations of amity; and I rejoice in the prospect that I shall be able to promote the best interests of My subjects by securing to them the advantages of peace.

I lament that civil war still afflicts the kingdom of Spain. I continue to execute with fidelity the engagements of My Crown with the Queen of Spain, according to the stipulations of the Treaty of Quadruple Alliance.

I have directed a Treaty of Commerce which I have concluded with the Confederation of Peru and Bolivia to be laid before you, and I hope soon to be able to communicate to you similar results of My negotiations with other Powers.

I recommend to your serious consideration the state of the province of Lower Canada.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The demise of the Crown renders it necessary that a new provision should be made for the Civil List.

I place unreservedly at your disposal those hereditary revenues which were transferred to the public by My immediate predecessor; and I have commanded that such papers as may be necessary for the full

full examination of this subject shall be prepared and laid before you.

Desirous that the expenditure in this, as in every other department of the Government, should be kept within due limits, I feel confident that you will gladly make adequate provision for the support of the honour and dignity of My Crown.

The estimates for the service of the next year are in course of preparation, and will be laid before you at the accustomed period.

I have directed that the utmost economy should be enforced in every branch of the public expenditure.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The external peace and domestic tranquillity which at present happily prevail are very favourable for the consideration of such measures of reformation and amendment as may be necessary or expedient; and your attention will naturally be directed to that course of legislation which was interrupted by the necessary dissolution of the last Parliament.

The result of the enquiries which have been made into the condition of the poor in Ireland has been already laid before Parliament, and it will be your duty to consult whether it may not be safe and wise to establish by law some well-regulated means of relief for the destitute in that country.

The municipal government of the cities and towns in Ireland calls for better regulation.

The laws which govern the collection of the tithe composition in Ireland require revision and amendment.

Convinced that the better and more effectual administration of justice is amongst the first duties of a Sovereign, I request your attention to those measures which will be submitted to you for the improvement of the law.

You cannot but be sensible of the deep importance of these questions which I have submitted to you, and of the necessity of treating them in that spirit of impartiality and justice which affords the best hope of bringing them to a happy and useful termination.

In meeting this Parliament, the first that has been elected under My authority, I am anxious to declare My confidence in your loyalty and wisdom.

The early age at which I am called to the Sovereignty of this kingdom renders it a more imperative duty that, under Divine Providence, I should place My reliance upon your cordial co-operation, and upon the love and affection of all My people.

LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 26, 1837.

Colonial-Office, Downing-Street, December 26, 1837.

A DISPATCH has been received from Lieutenant-General Sir John Colborne, K. C. B. Commander of the Forces in Canada, dated 29th November 1837, of which and of its inclosures the following are copies:

MY LORD,

*Head-quarters, Montreal,
November 29, 1837.*

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, for the information of the General Commanding in Chief, that, since my dispatch of the 20th instant, the revolt has been rapidly extending, and that the Law Officers of the Crown, and the Magistrates of Montreal having applied to me for military force to assist the civil power in apprehending Mr. Papineau, and other traitors, who were supposed to be at the villages of Saint Denis and Saint Charles, I ordered strong detachments to support the Civil Authorities in the execution of their duty.

Saint Denis is seven miles to the northward of Saint Charles, on the right bank of the River Richelieu; the former sixteen miles from Sorel; the latter about

about seventeen from the ferry of Chambly, opposite Pointe Oliviere.

Colonel Gore and Lieutenant-Colonel Hughes, with five companies and howitzer, were ordered to proceed from Sorel to Saint Denis, and five companies and two guns to move from Chambly on Saint Charles, under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Wetherall, of the Royal Regiment, accompanied by two Magistrates, to execute the warrants against those individuals, charged with high treason ; and it appeared probable, that the sudden appearance of the troops, at these points, and entering the villages nearly at the same time, would afford an opportunity of taking into custody the leaders of the revolt.

The Sorel detachment, under the superintendence of Colonel Gore, marched at ten o'clock on the night of the 22d, by a back concession road, to avoid the village of Saint Ours, occupied by the rebels, which encreased the distance of the march.

The incessant rain, and almost impassable roads, so impeded the progress of the detachment, that he did not reach Saint Denis until half past nine on the morning of the 23d ; the rebels on the approach of Her Majesty's troops commenced a heavy fire on them, from all the houses on the north side of the village, some of these were immediately taken by the light company of the 32d regiment, commanded by Captain Markham, but the fire from the howitzer having made little impression for several hours on a large stone building, strongly occupied, and the whole of the companies of the detachment being much exhausted, from the very long and difficult march of the previous night, Colonel Gore considered it necessary to return to Sorel.

Colonel Wetherall, with four companies of the Royal Regiment, and a detachment of the 66th regiment, and two six-pounders, passed the Richelieu lien by the upper ferry, at Chambly; the bad state of the roads, however, impeded his march, and prevented him proceeding further than Saint Hilaire, at which place he halted till another company of the Royals joined him; he then advanced on Saint Charles, attacked the rebels, carried an enclosed work, defended by fifteen hundred men, and completely dispersed them.

The advanced period of the season and the constant expectation of the navigation, becoming impracticable, the passage of the river being interrupted, it became necessary to use the utmost exertion, with a view of restoring order in the revolted district.

The troops which have been called to act in the disturbed districts, and to put down this sudden and extensively combined revolt, have had to contend with great difficulties; their communications with head-quarters having been completely interrupted by the armed peasantry assembled on the line of march.

Many of the deluded inhabitants are returning to their homes, and I trust that the affairs which have taken place may be the means of quickly restoring tranquillity to the country.

I am much indebted to Lieutenant-Colonel Wetherall, for his active zeal, and judicious conduct on many occasions in which he has been employed at this critical period.

I forward the reports of Colonel Gore and Lieutenant-Colonel Wetherall, which will afford the General Commanding in Chief full information of the proceedings of the detachments under their command, and returns of killed and wounded.

Captain Markham, an intelligent and zealous officer, has received several severe wounds.

I cannot close my dispatch without mentioning the exertions of Captain David and the Montreal Volunteer Corps of Cavalry, who accompanied the troops

troops on the service in which they have been engaged.

I have the honour to be, &c.

J. COLBORNE, Lieut.-Gen.

Major-General the Right Hon. Lord

Fitzroy Somerset, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

Montreal, November 25, 1837.

IN obedience to your commands, I left this garrison with the flank companies of the 24th regiment, under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Hughes, the Light Company of the 32d regiment, commanded by Captain Markham, one howitzer twelve-pounder, under Lieutenant Newcomen, Royal Artillery, and a party of the Montreal Cavalry, under Cornet Sweeney, on board the St. George steamer, at three o'clock P. M. on the 22d instant, on route to Sorel, where I disembarked at six o'clock, and placed the men in the Barrack-square; I directed Captain Crompton to be prepared to march at ten o'clock, when, according to my instructions, I proceeded on the road to St. Denis, on the River Richelieu, which I was directed to carry, and then move on rapidly to assist Lieutenant-Colonel Weatherall, of the Royal Regiment, in his attack on St. Charles.

The roads being deep, the march was severe (although the distance was only eighteen miles), it having rained violently all night, the mud and water reaching to the knees; I did not reach the small but rapid river which crosses the road four miles and a half from St. Denis, until sometime after daylight; in order to arrive at my destination with as little delay as possible, I took the back road, to avoid the village of St. Ours, and pass the small river by a bridge, higher up than the one by the main road, also also for the purpose to take on an intelligent guide, who had volunteered to lead.

After passing the bridge I observed an armed party leaving the lower one, who had been sent to oppose our crossing, and who flanked our line of march, but I did not waste time in dispersing them, but moved on to my point, which was now frequently impeded by the breaking up of the bridges. Several, however, were saved by Cornet Sweeney's detachment of Cavalry, who took two armed peasants, but could gain no positive information as to the intentions of the rebels. On approaching St. Denis, a strong body of armed men, moving along a wood, skirted my left flank; all the houses along the road were deserted, and on nearing St. Denis, I was attacked by skirmishers occupying the houses and barns on the road, and along the banks of the River Richelieu; these were rapidly driven in by Captain Markham to the main entrance. I found the place was strongly occupied, and the entrance defended by a large fortified stone house, and a barricado crossing the road, and flanked from a building and houses, from which a severe fire was commenced. I immediately reinforced the advance with Captains Crompton's, Maitland's, and Harris's companies, and placing the howitzer in a position off the right of the road, at a range of three hundred and fifty-yards, directed Lieutenant Newcomen to fire round shot into it, and batter it down, if possible; on examining the house, I found it too well secured and flanked, and the incessant firing shewed it to be well occupied. The armed force of the rebels, from what I can ascertain, was full fifteen hundred men, but report said nearer three thousand; during these operations the rebels were crossing the Richelieu in large batteaux, from St. Antoine, but I could not spare shot from the fortified house to obstruct their passage; Captain Markham got possession of a house immediately opposite to the fortified house, driving out the occupants pants at the point of the bayonet, but was almost immediately wounded in three places; the day was now advancing, it was evident that the whole country was in arms, and no important effect was made on the fortified house, and sixty round shot expended, and only six left; and the ground we occupied could hardly have been maintained during the night; it was necessary to come to some decision, either to assault the house so well defended, and flanked by others loop-holed, or to fall back, before the bridge in my rear could be broken down. The hazard of a failure under such circumstances, and the jaded condition of the men, frost having succeeded the rain and snow, and their clothes freezing on them, determined me to fall back; and having collected the wounded and placed them in such carts as we had, and the howitzer in the centre; I directed Lieutenant-Colonel Hughes to take the direction of the rear guard, and fell back. I was immediately followed by strong bodies of the rebels in rear and on my right flank, who were checked by the rear guard, and having observed that a strong force had been detached in the direction of the upper bridge, by which I had passed in the morning. On arriving where the road branched off to the two bridges, I turned to my left to the lower bridge, having ascertained that St. Ours was not fortified, and rid myself of the rebels, who were skirting my right flank. On crossing the bridge the artillery horses gave up altogether, and two of them fell; the infantry went immediately to the gun, and every exertion was made to get it on; the officers' horses and those of the ammunition waggon were put to the gun, but without effect; the wheels clogged with mud were now frozen, and after seven hours of severe toil, and during which Lieutenant-Colonel Hughes never left the gun; the medical officer declared that a half an hour more would freeze the men. The gun was spiked and abandoned. I then moved to St. Ours, where I was in hopes of finding the steam boat Varennes, ordered to meet us with provisions, but she had been attacked by two hundred armed persons, and forced to cut her cable and return.

I passed through the village, and halted at some farm houses, a mile on, to refresh the men, and proceeded, in the morning, at daylight, to Sorel, where I arrived at eleven o'clock in the morning of the 24th. My loss in killed and wounded, by the accompanying returns, is, one officer severely wounded (Captain Markham) and nineteen killed and wounded, and four missing; the loss of the rebels must have been about one hundred, which has since been confirmed. I have not yet received a correct return of the two companies of the 66th regiment, but I do not think they lost more than one or two. I enclose a detailed report from Lieutenant Newcomen, on the loss of the howitzer, who deserves much praise for his conduct.

In this arduous march, and during the whole of the operation, the officers and men displayed the highest courage and steadiness, although exposed to extreme suffering.

I was much indebted to Lieutenant-Colonel Hughes, of the 24th Regiment, for the advice and assistance I received from him, and his exertions to extricate the gun; and also to Lieutenant Lysons, of the Royal Regiment attached to the Quarter-Master-General's Department, for his zealous and active conduct; in Captain Markham, of the 32d regiment, who led the advance with great judgment, and was severely wounded, the service will be deprived for some time of a most valuable officer; Surgeon Farndon, of the Royal Regiment, and Assistant-Surgeon MacGrigor, of the 32d regiment, rendered every assistance in their power, power, and made the best arrangements for the wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

SIR, St. Charles, November 27, 1837.

I HAD the honour, yesterday, to report the successful result of my attack on the stockaded post of the rebels at this place.

In my letter of the 25th November, I stated the circumstances which induced me to suspend my march towards Saint Charles, and to order a company from Chambly to my support, and I then said that I should wait at Saint Hilaire for his Excellency's further orders: this dispatch was sent by Doctor Jones, of the Montreal Cavalry, and I hoped for his Excellency's answer during the following night. Not having received it, at nine yesterday morning, I concluded that my messenger had been interrupted, and having learned that the basin, at Chambly, was frozen over, and every probability of a retreat being cut off, should such an event occur, I resolved on the attack.

The march was accomplished without opposition or hindrance, except from the breaking down of the bridges, &c., &c., until I arrived one mile from this place, when the troops were fired at from the left, or opposite bank of the Richelieu, and a man of the Royal Regiment wounded; several rifle shots were also fired from a barn immediately in our front. I burnt the barn.

On arriving at two hundred and fifty yards from the rebel works, I took up a position, hoping that a display of my force would induce some defection among these infatuated people; they, however, opened a heavy fire, which was returned. I then advanced to another position, one hundred yards from the works, but, finding the defenders obstinate, I stormed and carried them, burning every building within the stockade, except that of the Honourable Mr. Debartsch, which, however, is much injured.

The

The affair occupied about one hour. The slaughter on the side of the rebels was great; only sixteen prisoners were then made. I have counted fifty-six bodies, and many more were killed in the buildings and their bodies burnt.

I shall occupy this village until the receipt of his Excellency's orders.

My killed and wounded are as follows :

The Royal Regiment—1 serjeant, 1 rank and file, killed; 3 rank and file severely wounded; 7 rank and file slightly wounded.

66th Regiment—1 rank and file killed; 2 rank and file severely wounded; 1 rank and file slightly wounded.

Total—1 serjeant, 2 rank and file, killed; 10 rank and file severely wounded; 8 rank and file slightly wounded.

Every man and officer behaved nobly yesterday. Major Warde carried the right of the position in good stile, and Captain Glasgow's artillery did good execution, he is a most zealous Officer. Captain David's troop of Montreal cavalry rendered essential service during the charge, and I regret that more are not attached to my force.

My horse was shot under me, and the chargers of Major Warde and Captain David severely wounded, since dead.

I have, &c.

SIR, Chambly, November 28, 1837.

I HAVE the honour to report my return to Chambly this evening, with the troops under my command.

Having received authentic information, at Saint Charles, on Sunday night, that a considerable body of the rebels had assembled near Point Oliviere, under Saniere, for the purpose of cutting off my retreat from Saint Charles, I resolved upon attacking them in preference to marching on Saint Denis; my march was so delayed by the difficulty of procuring conveyance for the wounded men, that it was too late to proceed when I arrived at Saint Hilaire.

This morning I continued my march, leaving the sick and wounded at Saint Hilaire, in the house of Colonel DeRonville, and a guard of one serjeant and fifteen men, in charge of Doctor Sewell, of the Montreal Cavalry, where I propose that they shall remain until the ice on the river will admit of their being transported in sleighs.

About a mile from Saint Oliviere, the rebels were discovered in a position well adapted to check my progress; they had protected themselves with an abattis, and two contemptible guns mounted on carts, they fled as soon as I formed to attack, relinquishing their guns, which are in my possession; a few shots were exchanged by which two men of the rebels were killed. I burnt a house from which they fired on their retreat. With the exception of a few straggling shot from the opposite side of the Richelieu, I reached this station without further opposition.

I have brought in twenty-five prisoners, and propose marching with them to Montreal, via Saint John's and the Railway, the day after to-morrow, should I not receive counter orders.

The

The party assembled at St. Denis have broken up since the affair of Saint Charles.

I have, &c.

Col. the Royal Regiment.
